Beaver & Gephart

Bellefonte Republican.

VOL. XXII. BELLEFONTE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 20, 1890. NO 8.

Established in 1869.} "Let us see to it that a Government, of the People, for the People, and by the People, shall not perish from the Earth."---A. LINCOLN. Terms: $1.50 per Year

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—No communication published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Correspondents should write upon but one side of the paper, and avoid the use of pale or fancy nks.

FOR NEXT GOVERNOR OF PENNSYLVANIA

ADJT. GEN. D. H. HASTINGS,

Subject to the decision of the Republican State Convention

EDITORIAL BRIEFS

IF the onion is not a scentury plant, what is it?

THE woman who asked the Agricultural Department to give her eighty sheep doesn't know evidently that the department is a specialist in pumpkin seeds.

ANOTHER infernal machine that did not explode turned up in Philadelphia yesterday by way of the mails. A characteristic of infernrl machines in this country is their non-explosiveness.

THE oil developments in Kentucky are not large, but they are sufficient to excite the hope that when the Pennsylvania fields are exhausted the Kentucky territory may be able to take their place to a considerable extent.

THE President has authorized the expenditure of $3,000 for the relief of the Devils Lake Indians, in North Dakota, and a measure for $25,000 more is pending in Congress. The noble redmen have we always with us, but the white settlers have to shift for themselves.

THE ovation given Gen. HASTING son Saturday evening by the citizens of Johnstown was true homage bestowed upon a worthy benefactor, and is a disappointment to a class of politicians who have been laboring for months to get the Johnstown catastrophe into politics

GOV. BEANER on Friday appointed D. J. Waller, Jr., of Bloomsburg, Pa., superintendent of public instruction to succeed the late Dr. E. E. Higbee. Mr. Waller is the president of the Bloomsburg Normal school and has for years been actively and prominently engaged in educational matters.

LATEST reports from Russia concerning the outrage in the political prison at Kara, Siberia, show that the first report was not altogether accurate. Mme. Sigida did not committ suicide to escape flogging. She was flogged to death. In other respects the first story was correct.

COL. JAMES H. LAMBERT, who became famous while on the Philadelphia Press, for his admiral political writings and who was made editor of the Inquirer last Spring, has gone back to, take an active position on the Press again. The friends of the Press are glad the Colonel made so short a stay in Europe.

THE iron trade has perceptibly improved within the past week. The change consists in more importunity on the part of buyers, and it is conceded that iron cannot be had as readily at concessions as on last Monday. Steel rails are also more active, and the inquiry in the Philadelphia market has been large and the sales quite 40,000 tons.

THE extent of the damage done by the recent storms in California and Oregon can be estimated from the fact that it is not expected that through trains from San Francisco to Portland, Ore., will be run for a month yet. As the blockade has lasted already two weeks, the difficulties to be overcome must be enormous. In addition to bridges that have to be replaced and the repairing to roadbeds, immense landslides have to be removed before traffic can be resumed. The railroads of the two states are called upon to bear a loss similar in proportion to that inflicted on the railroads in the East by the storms of last June. It is certainly a decided proof of their financial stability that they are able to bear such losses without hampering their usefulness losses which will amount to $1,250,000 at least on the Pacific Slope.

Stanley Will Visit the United States.

It is pretty generally understood that Henry M. Stanley will visit America during next winter, when he will resume the course of lectures so abruptly terminated three years ago by his mission to Central Africa. Major Pond is already making arrangements for his tour through the country. Not long ago an offer of $5,000 was made for his first ecture in New York city.

'RAH FOR RAY.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION WAS A GLORIOUS VICTORY FOR THE REPUBLICANS. EVERY MAN ON THE BOROUGH TICKET ELECTED BUT.

DONACHY AND McFARLANE.

Cutting, Scratchingy Sticking, Trading, Whiskey and Boodle All Put Together Tended to Make the Result What It Is.

Tuesday was a big day for Democrats and Republicans. There was more hard fighting than has been done for many years, and as to cutting, sticking, trading ect., it was simply volcanic. Whiskey and boodle was used pretty freely in some cases. The result, however, if not just what the Republicans expected or anticipated, yet it was such that they have good reason to rejoice over,

The election of Ray for Tax Collector was a signal victory. The Democrats felt as certain of Keichline's election as if the ballots were already counted and even when the polls closed, would have bet money on the result. But it was not as "thusly" as they thought it would be and when the vote was counted it was found that Ray had scored a score more votes than Keichline had.

For Chief Burgess W F Reber, Democrat, defeated J Kyle McFarlane by 120 votes. W I Swoope was elected Assistant Burgess. Charlie Cook Treasurer, and James Schofield, Democrat, Overseer of the Poor. H B Pontius was elected Auditor and Sam Deiige high Constable.

The north ward elected a full Republican ticket as did the west ward. In the south ward, which is strongly Democratic, H H Montgomery defeated Jno. Dolan, Democrat, for Constable; all the remainder of the Democratic ticket was elected.

Following we give the result of the election in the borough and townships so far as the returns are in:

BOROUGH OF BELLEFONTE.

NORTH WARD—Chief Burgess, McFarlane 174, Reber 171; Assistant Burgess, Swoope 206, Bush 135; Treasurer, Cook 220, Sechler 128; Tax Collector, Ray 207, Keichline 136; Poor overseer, Donechy 185, Schofield 159; Auditor, Pontius 204, Barnhart 141; High constable, Delige 209, Miller 125; Judge, Richards 206, Mcknight 129; Constable Taylor 205, Morrison 136; Inspector, Green 207, Callaway 122; Councilman, Longacre 200, Harper 146, School Director, Rankin 220, McClain 123.

SOUTH WARD—Chief Burgess; McFarlane 94, Reber 225; Assistant Burgess, Swoope 127, Bush 192; Treasurer, Cooke 133, Sechler 185; Tax Collector, Ray 131, Keichline 187; Poor Overseer, Donachy 126 Schofield 193; Auditor, Pontius 132, Barnhart 187; High Constable, Delige 130, Miller 182; Inspector, Schroyer 127, Lutz 190; Judge, Steel 122, Bauer 191; Council, Gehrett 119, Jamison 187; School Director, Bair 131, Runkle 186, Dorworth 108, Fortney 205; Constable; Montgomery 167, Dolan 148.

WEST WARD—Burgess, McFarlane 78, Reber 70; Assistant Burgess, Swoope 84; Bush 62; Treasurer, Cooke 91; Sechler 57; Tax Collector, Ray 76; Keichline 71; Overseer of Poor, Donachy 66; Schofield 81; Auditor, Pontius 93; Barnhart 55; High Constable, Delige 91; Miller 55; Judge of Election, Haupt 90; Lukenbach 56; Inspector, Bartley 91; Miller 56; Council, Crissman 90; Dunlap 57; School Director, Garner 83; Irvin 58; Constable, Garis 86, Bathurst 57.

BENNER TWP—Judge of Election, Daniel Heckman, Inspector, Daniel Houser, Jr., Township Clerk, H N Hoy, Supervisors, Fred Houser, School Director, John Reed. Overseer of Poor, Henry Campell, Collector, R P Hunter, Auditor, L B McEntire, Constable Wm Crape.

HAINES TWP—Supervisor, Henry H Stover; School Director, R B Hosterman; Overseer of Poor, John Bower; Tax Collector, Michael J Hess; Town Clerk, A F Bower; Constable, J W Musser; Auditor, F C Bower.

BURNSIDE TWP—Judge of Election, W S Loy and D G Stewart were tie; Inspector, Samuel Beightol; School Directors, Martin Viehdorfer John Hipple; Constable, Thomas Beightol; Supervisors, Christ Cook, E J Beates; Overseer of Poor, Jacob Beightol; Tax Collector, Wm Zimmerman; Townshp Treasurer, Wm Hipple; Auditor, H F Beates; Township Clerk, W F Loy.

MARION—Justice Peace, R B Loder; Judge of Election, John Wasson; Inspectors, J C Wilson, Close McClintic; Tax Collector, David Harter; Supervisors, Daniel Harter, Henry Tibbens; School Directors, Boyd Beck, John Hoy Jr; Overseer of Poor, Chas E Gearick; Constable, Franklin Weight; Auditor, John Ishler; Town Clerk, Wm Orr.

PATTON TWP—Judge, Dorsey Green, Inspector, David Meiss; Constable, W E Harstock; Justice, S F Gray; Collector, L H Musser; Supervisors, J W Hartsock, Daniel Stine; Auditor, W E Tate; School Directors, G W Baisor, J B Mattern; Overseer of Poor, John Rockey; Township Clerk, J C Mattern.

WALKER TWP—Judge, E J Markle; Inspector, John Rockey; Tax Collector, James Winkleman; Overseer of Poor, Henry Garbrick; Supervisors, Henry Bartholomew, Michael Corman; School Directors, Wm Clevenstine, Joseph Emerick; Constable, J L Walkey; Auditors, Joseph Markle, Christ Swartz; Town Clerk, Wm Markle.

HALF MOON TWP—Justice, P W Burket; Constable, W L Wilson; Judge, John W Gray: Inspector, J F Behers, John Thompson: Collector, George Fisher: School Directors, P W Burket, E O Way: Overseer of Poor, R A Way: Supervisor, Samuel Mattern. Hopher Houk; Town Clerk, H M Way.

RUSH TWP—Constable, J B Resides, Collector, J D Gill, Overseer of Poor, J B Lang, School Directors H H Vroman, Wm. Hulton, George Merriman (2 years.), Auditors John Mull, Frank Heit; Supervisors Orin Vail John Calihan, Township Clerk, S J Johnson.

MILLHEIM BOROUGH—Burgess, H F Confer; Assistant Burgess, C W Albright; Constable Geo. E Mensch, Collector, W E Keen; Overseer of Poor, John H Maize; School Directors, D L Zerby, J C Smith, Inspectors R A Bumiller, E E Knarr; Auditor, J W Steven; Judge, W S Maize; Council, John Hall, W H Miller; High Constable. Lewis Hassinger.

CENTRE HALL BOROUGH—Burgess, Geo. W Bushman; Assistant Burgess, John H Krumbine; Constable R B Spangler; Tax Collector, G W Ocker; Overseer of Poor, J D Murray, Wm. Lohr; School Directors, Henry Boozer, Aaron Harter; High Constable, Robert W Miller; Auditor, C F Denninger; Treasurer, H W Kreamer; Judge of Election, John Spangler; Inspector, John T Lee; Council 2 years, Ezra Krumbine, D F Luse, 1 year Howard Homan.

PHILIPSBURG BORO—Burgess, H C Wartel: Assistant Burgess, L C Jones: Tax Collector, C A Faulkner: Overseer of Poor, Oscar Adams: School Directors, Robt Lloyd, Jas Turnback: Auditor, R L Scott: Church Trustees, W A Dunwiddie, James Hale, Dr F B Potter.

MILESBURG BOROUGH—Burgess, L T Eddy; Constable, James Gray; Collector, Z T Harshbarger; Overseer of Poor John Confer 2 years; School Directors, Rev. W O Wright, Alfred Smith; Auditor 3 years, A G Rager; Judge of Election, J Vrom Morris; Inspector Joseph Shirk; Town Council, (3 years) John I. Gingher, Henry Comer; High Constable, James Quick, HARRIS TWP—Constable, A Ossman; Collector, O W Stover; Overseer of Poor, D W Meyers; School Directors, D T Weiland, P M Weber; Auditor, J W Keller; Supervisors, G Swab, B F Brown; Township Clerk, J N Dinges; Inspector, P H Meyer; Judge Fergus Potter.

TAYLOR TWP—Justice of the Peace, Jas K Horner; Judge of Election, John Henderson; Inspectors, John Blowers, Milton J Henderson; Constable, John T Merryman; Supervisors, Samuel Hoover, Jerry Sharer; Auditor, W S Weston; Overseer of Poor, Orlando Weston; School Directors, Henry Yingling, B V Fink; Tax Collector, Pias Richards; Twp Clerk, W T Hoover.

UNION TWP—Judge of Election, Geo Neiman: Inspectors Arista Lucas, Jesse Frederick; Overseer of Poor, P H Bush; Supervisors, Henry Spotts, R F Cornley; School Directors, Wm Shirk, J B Alexander; Constable, D B Allen; Auditor, J C Stere; Justice Peace, P H Bush; Assessor T W Fisher and R F Cornley tie; Tax Collector, J H Stover; Township Clerk, E P Barton.

HUSTON TWP—Judge of Election, Wm Resides; Inspectors, W J Kline, Austin Swisher; Tax Collector, I F Davis; Supervisors, L C Bullock, John Gingery; School Directors, G G Fink, Dallas Cronister: Overseer of Poor, T A Ardell: Auditor, E R Williams: Constable, A B Meyers; Clerk, W J Kline.

SPING TWP—Tax Collector, John S Roan; School Directors, Harrison Kline, J H Olliger; Supervisors, Foster Jordon, A V Hamilton; Overseer of Poor, L H Wian; Auditor, E G Osmer; Constable, John Love; Twp. Clerk, Frank Hunter; Justices of Peace, Ephraim Keller. R H Crosthwait.

CURTIN TWP.—Judge George Weaver; Inspector, George D Glossner; Supervisors Jere Ryan, David McCloskey, Sr., Auditor, Geo. Weaver; Tax Collector, N J McCloskey; Overseer of Poor, Conrad Singer; Harvey M Johnson, Town Clerk, Wm. Robb; School Directors, Conrad Singer, Peter Robb, Sr., Treasurer, Peter Robb Jr.

GREGG TWP—Justice Peace, S J Herring; Constable, Reuben Kline, School Directors, Wm Pealer, Wm Luse: Supervisors, J B Heckman, Wm Scholl: Overseer of Poor, David Sower: Tax Collector, H M Cain: Auditor, J B Elsher: Town Clerk, J J Tayler.

COLLEGE TWP—Justice Peace, J M Thompson; Constable, James Ray: Overseer of Poor, E B Peters: Supervisors, Fred Decker, Henry Feshel: School Directors, Hiram Thompson, Samuel Garner: Treasurer, J G Farris: Collector, Harrison Knarr: Auditor, A W Dale: Clerk, Wm Thompon, Jr.

The Salt Lake Election.

There is rejoicing all over the land over the defeat of the Mormons at the Salt Lake election. Curious is it, but entirely true, however, it was a Democratic defeat and a Republican triumph. This sounds harsh perhaps, but that can't be helped, for it is true. The hope of the Democracy, so far as Utah is concerned, is in Mormonism, and the recent Supreme Court decision against it is a blow by the Court against the Democratic party. Of course many Democrats are sound on the Mormonism question; but the fact stands out Mormons in Utah and Democrats, and the Mormons there and elsewhere base their hopes on the success of the Democratic party. The course of CLEVELAND as President clearly reveals the sympathy that exists between the party and the remaining "twin evil." It is noteworthy that wherever improvement advances on railroads and telegraphs, hand in hand with a better civilization the Republican cause brightens. The new States, which are the outcome of this advancement, range themselves on the Republican side. Wherever the light is let into a territory the result is found to be a Republican State. Has not this been the experience for years? The Mormon defeat in Salt Lake is a Republican victory and a Democratic set-back. It is impossible to misinterpret the unfolding of events in the march of enterprise.

IT was a little unfortunate for Mr. Cleveland's latest deliverance on ballot reform that it was addressed to a Maryland paper. It sounds almost ludicrous to hear him saying to the people of that State that "ballot reform is right, and that is why I believe it should be adopted." They will be very apt to recall the fact that while Mr. Cleveland was President he honored with office some of the worst ballot box stuffers in Maryland. The reputation of Higgins, Rasin, and Thomas in the manipulation of elections was notorious in Maryland, and it was put before Mr. Cleveland in the clearest light, and yet he persisted in placing these men in office and in keeping them there as long as they chose to stay or he had the power to retain them. Lumpy platitudes coming from a man whom the people voted out of office because he proved unworthy of trust are the cheapest stock in trade a man can have, and it is about time Mr. Cleveland understood the fact.

THE Secretary of the Treasury is again taking money from the banks. For two years the Treasury has been a sort of reserve upon which the speculative portion of the public felt they could call the moment money was wanted for any purpose whatever. That this unnatural condition of affairs has passed is a matter of congratulation, but there may be some inconvenience in speculative circles before the new and proper order of things is fully in force.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON D. C., Feb. 17, '90.

The President, while the controversy over the new rules was in progress in the House, positively refused to express his opinion upon the merits of the rules reported, but your correspondent happens to know that since their adoption he has expressed himself as thinking their adoption the greatest legislative reform made in congress for many years. The vote in the House on the adoption of the rules was 161 to 145, a strict party vote.

An agreement has been made between the leaders of both parties in the House not to call up any of the contested election cases this week. This has been done in order to dispose of the World's Fair question. The committee has reported two bills, one providing for holding the fair in Washington and the other for holding it either at Chicago, New York or St. Louis, It is proposed to give several days to a discussion of the bills, and it is expected that by Friday, or Saturday at the latest, the final vote may be taken. A large number of the boomers of each of the contesting cities are here and the Washington people are no ways backward in upholding the claims of the Capital. Take it all in all the members of the House will have a very lively time this week.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections heard the evidence in the Montana Senatorial contest on Saturday. The Democrats being represented by ex-Solicitor-general Jenks and the Republicans by ex-Commissioner of Patents H. E. Paine. After hearing the evidence and argument the committee went into executive session. The report is anxiously awaited and will probably be made sometime this week. Opinion seems to be divided as to whether the Republicans will be seated or all of them thrown out.

Some comment is heard among Republicans upon the tardiness of the Republicans in organizing their congressional campaign committee. The Democrats have already organized theirs and from the fact that Roswell P. Flower, the millionaire New York Congressman, has been made chairman it is surmised that no money will be lacking. Gorman is chairman of the Senate branch of the committee, in fact he is the boss of the whole machine, Flower being only an ornamental figurehead who is expected to come down liberally with the ducats.

The bill providing for ascertaining the mortgage indebtedness of the country when the census is taken this year, has passed both Senates and House and is now in the hands of the President.

Gen. Alger arrived here Saturday and was a guest of Mrs. Gen. Logan until to-day, when he took quarters at a hotel. To-night he will attend the encampment of the G. A. R. here and to-morrow he goes to Baltimore to attend a camp fire and banquet. Afterwards he will return, probably to remain here until the Congressional Pension committee decides upon some line of action regarding the various pension bills, now before them.

It was supposed that the hearings in the Ohio ballot box forgeries were closed last week, but Col. Neal of Cincinnati, is to testify to-day. The reason for the re-opening was furnished by Mr. Kurtz, ex-Gov. Foster's private Secretary, who testified that Col. Neal had said that Gov. Campbell, while a member of Congress, had gone to President Cleveland and asked him to get the democratic leaders to suspend the tariff fight until he (Campbell) could get his ballot box bill through.

There is a hitch in the new tariff bill and besides that, Mr. McKinley, the chairman of the Ways and Means, committee, has been sick for nearly a week, so that there is little probability of the bill's being reported to the House until after the first of March. Sugar is the principal stumbling block.

Among the bills passed by the Senate last week was one appropriating $2,500 to pay attorney's fees due Porter, Harrison and Fishback, the President's old firm. The services were performed some years ago, and were occasioned by a suit brought against Gen. Hovey, now Governor of Indiana, by a man who was convicted of being a member of the Knights of the Golden Circle by a military commission appointed by Gen. Hovey while commanding the department of Indiana.

The President, accompanied by Secretary Blaine, will go to Pittsburg Wednesday, the opening of the free public library having been postponed from last week to secure his attendance.

Secretary Windom is to give his views on his silver bill to the House committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures, Wednesday.

The Blair educational bill is expected to get a vote this week in the Senate. It will pass, notwithstanding the claims of its opponents.

The annual woman's suffrage convention meets here tomorrow and will continue in session four days.

Too Much Wheat.

Perhaps this is as safe a solution of the refusal of wheat to advance in price as any other. The importing countries are few. The exporting countries are competing with each other for the favor of those countries which must import. The area of arable land that has been broken, the world over, in the past ten years, is sufficient to make an empire; several of them, in fact. The wheat supply has more than kept pace with the increased demand, which would of itself be sufficient to deaden the market for both wheat and flour.

But there is another very cogent reason why, even in years when we believed we were short of wheat, no advance, or hardly an appreciable advance, took place in the price of wheat. People do not eat as much as formerly; at least, those people who in our own and foreign countries are not strangers to white bread. The bill of fare of civilized man has expanded enormously of late years The immense quantities of canned and preserved goods that are now consumed must have supplanted something. Was it not bread, at least very largely, that was displaced by the entrance into the markets of so much canned food, and its increasing consumption everywhere? We think decidedly that it was, and that the per capita consumption of wheat in the United States has been steadily declining for years. We doubt if it is now four bushels per capita, and this fact, with the other cited, will amply account for the refusal of wheat to advance in price in spite of the most favorable outlooks. —American Miller.

The Fourth District.

The election in the Fourth District for filling the vacancy in Congress caused by Judge Kelley's death, has come to possess a peculiar interest, whereas ordinarily it would have very little. The usual Republican majority there has been large—last time it was over 9,000. The new interest grows out of the fact that Reyburn, the Republican candidate, is opposed by Ayers, Democrat, as a tariff reformer, and has the support of a number of Republicans on a "free raw material" platform. At the same time a number of Protection Democrats oppose Ayers for that reason. On a small scale the issue is the very one on which Democrats profess a wish to take their stand hereafter in State and National contests. The Republicans manifest an equal willingness to meet the issue, whether on a large or small scale. Under no state of things could the Republicans expect to keep up Judge Kelley's majority in a Presidential year. There is no motive for the effort that sent Judge Kelley's majority to little less than 10,000 in the district. Therefore that majority should not be looked on. A materially less majority afford some ground for claiming the strength for the "raw materials" issue, while a majority for Reyburn approaching Judge Kelley's would be equally forcible as showing its weakness in the district where the question is well understood.

By June 15.

It is understood that the Republicans intend that the 15th day of June shall not find Congress in session. To accomplish this the principal committees are hard at work framing the Appropriation bills, the Pension bill, the Tariff bill, and other bills which carry the heaviest work, and that usually draw the session out. This is contrary to the policy and practice of Mr. Randall and is entirely new. To accomplish it the new rules and Speaker Reed's vigor and clear-headedness will be essential. The rules will be settled before the present week ends, and Reed is always there and ready—the best and most successful rule of all. This good intention may to some extent be thwarted by a factitious Democratic minority. The country will note the resolution and the opposition it encounters.

THOUGH 70 years on Saturday, Gen. SHERMAN takes as much delight as he ever did in kissing pretty girl faces.

THE MAJORITY RULES.

The Republican majority in the House of Representatives now controls the situation. The adoption yesterday of a working set of rules, in spite of Democratic protests and vain attempts at filibustering, gives the majority the power to legislate, which the self-imposed shackels of the old rules has denied it in recent Congresses.

The two changes in the rules to which the Democrats objected most violently are the provisions that the presence of a quorum may be ascertained when necessary by an actual count of the members present, and the rule that "dilatory motions shall not be entertained by the Speaker." Both these provisions are necessary to prevent the minority from wasting the time of the House. Both, however, have been exercised by the present Speaker, the first under his constitutional right and the second under common parliamentary law. Their incorporation in the rules is a sanction and confirmation of the authority assumed by the Speaker and places the continued enforcement of them beyond the reach of controversy or cavil.

Another change allows the House at any time, by a majority vote, to fix a day for the consideration of a bill or resolution already favorably reported by a committee. This, with filibustering and dilatory motions suppressed, gives the House complete control of its business. Important measures whose passage is demanded by the interests of the country and desired by the majority of the House will no longer be snowed under a thousand minor bills, there to take their turn, but can at any time after a favorable report be taken from the bottom of the heap if necessary and made the order of the day. This makes legislation again possible. It emancipates the House from its thraldom and restores to its legitimate place the rule of the majority. It was a brave fight made by the Republicans, and their triumph is complete.

Speaker Reed has exhibited in this contest great ability, endurance, self command and high courage. His political opponents in and out of Congress have sought to cover him with obloquy by lavishing upon him abuse in indecent and unstinted fashion. In spite of it all, they must now accord to him the admiration and respect which cannot easily be withheld from the undoubted victor in a well-fought fight.

Postal Savings Banks.

Next in importance to postal telegraphy, as a means of greatly facilitating the public convenience, is the establishment of postal savings banks, where small deposits can be made by all who are out of the reach of the savings banks chartered by State law. The number who are so situated is very much larger than is usually supposed. In some of the States there is thought to be little need for such a system, and it has even been suggested that the Government ought not to adopt a system that would interfere with the prosperity of existing institutions. In all large cities, and in nearly all the towns large enough to sustain a bank, there are reasonably safe facilities for the keeping of small deposits, but there are tens of thousands of thrifty persons in every State, especially in the rural districts, who would be greatly benefited by postal savings banks.

Mr. LODGE, of Massachusetts, has introduced into the House a bill for the establishment of postal savings banks and it ought to become a law. Such a measure would not interfere materially with the banks already in existence, but it would not be long until millions of dollars, now either hoarded in very unsafe places or suffered to slip through improvident fingers, would be safely held subject to call of the depositors. Every dollar saved by the masses is an additional guarantee of good citizenship and the Government that encourages thrift and industry adds to its own strength and stability as well as to the happiness and independence of its citizens.

—The Republican State Central Committee, of New York, met at the Fifth Avenue hotel on Saturday evening last to take action on the course of the Senators and members of the House that supported the Senate's action on the World's Fair bill and by a vote of 29 to 6 sustained the action of the Republicans in the Senate, which the democratic and a mugwump press call Tom Platt's bill. They also sustained unanimously the action of Speaker Reed on his position as to rules.

Our Story Teller.

A DROLL WOOING.

BY MRS, L A BASSET.

'Oh, dear,' sighed mamma, 'this is dreadful! What shall we do?'

We three girls looked disconsolate.

'Yes,' she continued, 'it is positively shocking! Your papa has refused—refused outright—to let us go to a fashionable watering place this summer. He says he cannot afford it.'

'Is that all, mamma,' I said in a tone of relief. 'By your dreadful manner I concluded papa had failed, and that we girls should be obliged to go out for day's work. As it is I don't care much I actually found Saratoga a bore last summer, and would rather stay at home than not.'

'Julia Maria!' said mamma, looking me straight in the eye and addressing me by that awful name, which she only uses when particularly enraged, 'Julia Maria Mason do you know what you are talking about? Do you remember that you have passed your twenty-fifth birthday and no husband yet?'

'Really, mamma,' I replied meekly, 'I don't see how I am to blame for my age; and as for a husband, I can't very well ask any man to have me.'

'But you might try harder, Julia,' said my disturbed parent 'if you had exerted youself last summer you could easily have caught Orlando Fields.'

'But I wouldn't marry him, mamma Orlando Fields, indeed! a horrid crusty old bachelor who takes snuff. No. I wouldn't marry him if he were the last man on earth and I the last woman.'

'You'll be a crusty old maid before you know it,' remarked mamma, sententiously,

'I don't care if I am,' I replied, petulantly. 'I shall not marry a man whom I neither like nor respect to please any one—old maid or no old maid!'

'Oh, well,' said mamma, returning to her first grievance, 'it is useless to discuss the matter; only tell me what we shall do this summer, Julia; you know we must leave town at any rate.'

'I have an idea, mamma,' I exclaimed, suddenly.

'You shall take the girls to that cheap place at the sea-side, and I'll go and spend the summer with Annt Hollis.'

'With Aunt Hollis!' shrieked mamma, in little semi-quavers.

'With Annt Hollis!' exclaimed the two other girls, in a breath.

'Yes. Why not?'

'In that dreadful, out-of-the-way place. with that horrid old thing!'

'I don't know that she is a horrid old thing, by any means,' I replied; 'I never saw her. And as for the place—I have often heard that the scenery near her home is very beautiful—right in the heart of the New Hampshire hills. Of course, the society may be a trifle primitive, but one can get used to almost anything; and as long as I am to be deprived of Saratoga and Newport, I mean to go to the other extreme, and visit Aunt Hollis.'

'But, Julia, you'll never get a husband out there.'

'Oh, dear!' I exclaimed, in disgust. 'There you go again, mamma! Isn't there anything in this world to think about, from the instant a girl gets out of her cradle, but that one tiresome theme, a husband? I tell you I quite hate men. I won't have a husband, and I will go to Aunt Hollis'.'

Mamma sighed dismally, and subsequently gave her consent.

One week later I started on my journey. It was a beautiful day, and my heart felt unusually light, as we left the dusty city far behind us and sped away through the green fields and still greener woods. I leaned, delighted, from the car window, to get a sniff of the wholesome, scented air.

Along toward evening we came to the little station where I was to get off. I alighted, feeling somewhat forlorn. Not a human being could I discern, aside from the station master.

'Where is it ye're wantin' to go, miss?' he asked, coming forward, and bowing politely.

'To Dexter.'

'Wal, you'll be obleeged to wait till Ben Briggs comes arter the mail. He allus takes all the passengers.'

After a long and tedious delay, Ben Brigg's conveyance (which proved to be a huge emigrant wagon, drawn by a pair of short-necked oxen) drew up before the door of the station.

'Mercy!' I exclaimed, involuntarily; 'I can't ride in that thing!'

'Oh, yes you can,' said the station master; 'them oxen air as fast as hosses, You'll find them amazin' at gitten over the road. See here, Ben, ye've got two passengers to Dexter Hilloo thar! the stage's come!'

Presently, in answer to this call, a tall dark-haired gentleman emerged from the woods near by, closely followed by a great Newfoundland dog.

'Down Turner!' he commanded. 'How d'ye do, Ben?' addressing the fat, good-natured-looking stage-driver. 'You see I'm back once more.'

'How d'ye do yerself, cap'in?' said Ben. 'Glad to see ye in these 'ere parts agin'. Just let me h'ist the trunks in an' we're off. I s'pose you won't mind takin' a seat 'long side the lady? most o' gentlemen don't,' (with a sly wink.) 'Come, Turner, old fellar, hop up here with me.'

The huge dog obeyed with alacrity, and we were off.

'Are you en route for Dexter also?' asked my companion, politely.

'Yes' 'I am going to visit an aunt of mine who resides there.'

'It hain't Miss General Cady?' put in Ben. 'You look somewhat like them finkified gals who were thar last year.'

'No,' I replied.

'Wal, then I know, it's the minister's wife. I heerd she was a goin' to have a niece come.'

'I am not acquainted with the minister's wife.'

'Then it's Belinda Baxter; she that was lawyer Baxter's wife afore he died?'

'No.'

'Wal, now, would you mind a tellin' who your aunt is?'

'Not in the least.' I replied, intensely amused. 'Her name is Miss Matilda Hollis.'

'Jupiter!'

This expression came from Ben, who turned squarely around and faced my companion.

'I'll bet, by hokey! she's your wife, cap'in.' he exclaimed. 'It's pretty mean to deserve a feller like that——'

'Hush, Ben!' said the gentleman, in a low tone, 'I tell you I never saw the lady before. I think,' turning to me with a winning smile, 'we must be relatives, as Miss Matilda Hollis is my aunt also, and I am on my way to pay her my annual visit.'

'Indeed!' I exclaimed in surprise, my name is Julia Mason; Aunt Hollis is great-aunt to my father. Now, pray, who are you?'

'My name is Carl Willston. My mother was Miss Hollis' half-sister; so, you see, we are cousins.'

'I have often heard of you, although this is our first meeting, cousin mine,' I replied, gayly. 'Let us be friends.'

We shook hands cordially.

It was nearly dark when the fleet (?) oxen arrived at Dexter, which proved a little drowsy, antiquated place. Ben threw the mail out at the shoemaker's shop, which, I afterward learned, served as a postoffice also, and we drove toward the residence of Aunt Hollis.

'That am the place,' suddenly exclaimed Ben, pointing with his whip.

An exclamation of surprise and delight broke from me.

Just before me, on the very bank of a beautiful lake, stood a low, rambling house, half hid in the tall trees that surrounded it.

'Elmwood,' said my newly found cousin.

'Whoa, thar!' shouted Ben, as we drew up before the door. 'I've brought ye company, Miss Hollis.'

The door opened, and a silver-haired old lady came forward.

'Is it Julia?' she asked, in a sweet voice. 'I received your letter, my dear; need I say, I am glad to see you?'

So this was Aunt Hollis—that 'horrid old thing!' I was so much surprised and pleased that I threw my arms about her neck and kissed her several times, impulsively.

'I feel slighted,' said an injured voice behind me. 'Not a word for your boy, aunt Hollis?'

'Can that be Carl, too? Why, my dear boy, I hardly expected you before another week; but you are welcome indeed. This is your cousin, Julia Mason.'

'I know it, Aunt Hollis; the ride from the station here explained things; but I am too nearly famished to go into details.'

'Very well; your supper is waiting. Come in, my children; it will seem good to see bright young faces about the old house once more.'

I thought I had never tasted such a supper as we sat down to that night. Such delicious strawberries, half smothered in sugar and real cream! Such snowy buscuits and layers of delicate cake! I enjoyed myself heartily doing ample justice to all that was placed before me. We spent a cheerful evening and when I retired, before falling asleep in the most comfortable of all comfortable beds, I mentally decided that I had done a wise thing in coming to pay Aunt Hollis a visit.

I was awakened next morning by a clear tenor voice, singing underneath my window:

"Kathleen Mavourneen, the gray dawn is breaking,
The horn of the hunter is heard on the hill.
The lark from her light wing the bright dew is shaking Kathleen Mavourneen, what! slumbering still?"

I dressed myself, quickly, in a white cambric morning robe, and ran lightly down stairs—out into the garden.

'There walked a maid all dressed in white," quoted Mr. Willston, emerging from behind a tree. "Good-morning, cousin.'

'Good-morning,' I replied.

'What do you think of Elmwood?'

'I think,' I exclaimed, rapturously, 'that I was never before in such a pleasant place, and that I should enjoy a row on yonder lake above all other things.'

'Then you shall have your wish. I am very certain that there are several navigable boats in the boat house—at least there used to be last summer.'

Just then Aunt Hollis appeared, to call us to breakfast.

'You look like your father, my dear,' she said, kissing me.

If possible, the breakfast was an improvement on last night's tea: I ate heartily and with a feeling that the lassitude I usually experienced in the city had left me forever.

'Now away with you,' said my aunt, giving me an affectionate pat on the shoulder: 'out on the lake or up the mountain. Carl will take care of you. You need the country air, my dear; those cheeks are too pale. For my part, I cannot see how people manage to exist in those hot, stifling cities.'

I followed her advice to the letter, until a row on the lake and a ramble up the mountain made up a part of every day. I was always accompanied by Cousin Carl, as I had grown to call him, and who, I concluded after mature deliberation, was a decided improvement on Mr. Orlando Fields.

So the summer wore away, and I was already looking forward with regret to my return home.

'Cousin Julia,' said Carl, sauntering up the garden path one day, and pausing before the open window where I sat, busily employed embroidering an antimacasser for Aunt Hollis, 'what is your idea of picnics?'

'I think,' I replied, without looking up, 'that, as a general thing, they are dreadful trials. We had several at Newport last summer; and once I was compelled to go in a boat with that horrid, squinting Sam Archer, who upset us and spoiled my beautiful new muslin dress, that as papa declared cost a fortune.'

'Well I promise you, you shall not be upset this time. And to provide against such a catastrophe, as the spoiling of a new muslin, all you have to do is to leave that garment hanging on its respective nail in your warbrobe, and don a good serviceable calico gown. You will then be dressed as well as your neighbors. Calico is quite a la mode here in Dexter.'

'Where are we going may I inquire?

'To Sylvan Glen—a place about five miles down the lake—and this very afternoon; so be sure you are ready. Sarah Jane Baxter and Simon Ellis are going. Simon invited your humble servant. Be prepared to meet the elite,' he concluded, laughingly.

As the calico was entirely out of the question, I donned a plain white swiss and, at the appointed time, provided with a goodly basket of eatables, we set out.

The picnic proved a famous country gathering, and was about as uncomfortable as picnics in general. I fell a victim to the violent fancy of a red-headed young man, who talked through his nose and seemed able to discuss but one subject the weather.

'It's a fine day, Miss Mason,' he remarked.

'Yes,' I replied, 'it is.'

'We had a fine day yesterday.'

'I believe so.'

'It was fine all last week, Miss Mason,' I told him, 'if I remembered correctly, it was.'

'And all the week before.'

Carl had deserted me, but now came rambling by, humming an old tune:

"Maid of Athens, ere we part,
Give, oh, give me back my heart."

I gave him a look of entreaty, but he only laughed and passed on. It was evident he enjoyed my discomfiture to the fullest extent.

Finally, when I had answered the same question at least a dozen times, I broke away from my adorer, and wandered down through the leafy vista toward the lake.

The view was particularly enchanting, and I strolled on, scarcely heeding that I had long since left the beaten path behind.

At last the ground began to grow wet and soggy, and I was about to retrace my steps, when suddenly I was startled by a noise behind me. I looked around, and beheld—oh, horrors!—making straight toward me, a dreadful cow!

Now, in all my sojourn at Aunt Hollis,' I could never accustom myself to a cow; and this one had such great, long horns—just fit for hooking, it seemed to me. She was in full pursuit, making straight toward me. In my terror, I plunged headlong forward, never stopping to look back.

All at once my treacherous foot slipped, and I felt myself sinking. The black mud oozed over the tops of my French kid boots, and the lower ruffle to my muslin gown was fast disappearing. I shrieked with terror, and was answered by a melancholy "moo,"

Turning my head, I beheld my enemy at a short distance behind me, but in the same predicament; there stood that cow, up to her body in mud, stuck fast.

In vain she tried to extricate herself; it was equally useless on my part, so I began to indulge in tears.

'Oh, wouldn't some one come and get me out of that awful place What if I should sink out of sight entirely!'

I grew nearly frantic at the thought, and shrieked louder than ever. But, alas! my vote was completely drowned by the terrific "moos" of my enemy, who instantly embraced the opportunity of uniting with me in calling for aid.

Our voices were not in the least harmonious, and the vocal duet that we executed caused me, even in my woe-begone situation, to indulge in a sickly smile.

At last I heard a faint "hillo!' Thank Heaven, some one was coming to the rescue.

Nearer and nearer sounded footsteps, until, presently, the bushes parted, and the tall form of my Cousin Carl emerged from them.

In an instant he had taken in the situation, and, making strenuous efforts to suppress his inclination to laugh, he asked, in a grave tone:

'Which shall I help first?'

This was too much. I burst into a violent fit of weeping.

'I think it downright mean, 'to twit me like this! I had to run. That awful cow came right after me, with all her horns spread. I was forced to run; I was, indeed. Oh, mercy! I'm sinking!'

'Who ever saw a cow with her horns crossed?' roared Carl. 'They are always 'spread,' as you call it. What made the animal run was because there was a dog after her. You see she kept coming around the picnic ground until I set Turner on her.' Then he added in a graver tone: 'Don't cry any more, little cousin, I'll help you out under one condition.

'What is that?' I gasped.

'That you will promise me here, on the very spot, to be my wife.'

Was there ever before such an unheard of idea! I had received sundry proposals in my life-time. I had even had one infatuated youth sink gracefully on his knees before me, but a proposal to a young lady, ankle-deep in a bog-hole, was a thing out of all common.

'I mean it,' he repeated. If you do not say yes, I shall rescue the cow and depart.'

'Yes, yes,' I sobbed. 'Oh, mercy, yes! anything but get that awful cow out. Oh, dear! dear!'

'There is still another condition,' continued my tantalizing cousin, I shall demand a kiss.'

'Indeed you'll not!' I exclaimed.

'To be sure; engaged people always seal the contract thus. Quick! or I rescue the cow.'

'Yes! yes!'

With the aid of a stout board and his helping hand, I was soon free,

'Now I want my kiss.'

I refused flatly; there was a short struggle, and I really believe he did kiss me:

How was I to get home without being seen? was the next question. Carl righted matters by leading me to a secluded spot on the bank of the lake, and then returned for the boat. I was rowed back to Aunt Hollis' in a dreadful plight and made my ingress at the back door, from whence I escaped to my room unobserved.

Two hours later, when I appeared in the little parlor, clad in my apple green muslin, with its cherry ribbons, I looked and felt none the worse of my adventure, but my cheeks must have taken on a carnation hue when Aunt Hollis came to kiss me, and whispered in my ear that 'she knew all.'

That evening, as Carl and I were pacing up and down the garden-walk he remarked:

'Julia, you wouldn't do to belong to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals; you haven't once inquired after the fate of that unfortunate cow. For all you know, she may be there still.'

I devoutedly hope she is,' I snapped—'sunk to her very horns. She deserves it, for getting me into such a scrape.'

'I am sorry you haven't your wish, dear, but I saw her safely out hours ago. I felt too grateful to her not to look after her welfare.'

When I started for home, that fall, Ben Briggs, with the oxen and emigrant wagon, again made his appearance, and I was helped in, followed by Carl, who was to accompany me.

As we jogged along, Ben appeared to look very knowing, and, after sundry winks and blinks in my direction, reached down and drew a suspicious-looking black bottle from under the seat.

'Wal, cap'n,' he said, by way of prelude,' I sorter made a mistake when I was a-drivin' you two out here; I got a leetle ahead o' time; but if you hain't any objective now, I'll wish you both much joy, and long life to you!' and Ben took a long drought from the black bottle.

We were married at Christmas time, much to poor mamma's satisfaction.

Carl proves a model; and my sisters declare they would be willing to spend all their summers at Aunt Hollis', providing they could manage to catch as handsome a husband as I did.

THE latest news from Delaware is not that its peach crop is killed by frost and consequently is that it has publicly whipped a number of culprits. About the only time little Delaware gets her name in the papers is when her winning-post of peach trees do business.

A QUEER STORY.

How the Hero of Johnstown paid his last debt before leaving that city.

Philadelphia Inquirer.

General Hastings tells an excellent story on himself. This incident occurred at Johnstown while he was in command of the place after the great flood. One day a man came into the headquarters and wanted to see "the gineral."

"What can I do for you, my man?" asked Hastings.

"Well, sor, I live down to Morrellville," he said, "an' me cellar is full of mud and water, an' the children are all down with the sickness, an' won't ye have the place cleaned out?"

"Certainly I will," said the general.

"An, whin will ye 'tend to it?"

"This afternoon."

The General kept his word. He was almost constantly in the saddle, and early in the afternoon he rode to Morrellville, two or three miles down the Conemaugh, and after a good deal of difficulty found the house. The applicant for relief was waiting.

"I've come to look at the cellar," said the general. "If you will hold my horse a few minutes I'll run in and see what can be done."

The cellar was in a most filthy condition, filled with the debris of the flood. He went down the stairs as far as he could go, took note of the surroundings, and the same day sent a gang of men to the place and put the house in good condition once more.

The days wore by and at last the time came when, his work over, he was to bid farewell to Johnstown. There was an immense throng at the little station to see him off. Men were cheering him and women were crying over him. A delegation of working men from the mills presented him with a wreath of flowers, to which was attached a note of thanks for all he had done for them and the kind words he had spoken. The General was deeply affected by the tokens of esteem and love. In the midst of it all the man from Morrellville pushed his way to the front.

"Are ye goin' away?" he demanded.

"I am."

"Well ye are not goin' till ye pay yer honest debts, be ye?"

"Well, now, if I owe any debts I am right here on the hurricane deck ready and anxious to pay them."

"Then give me the dollar you owe me."

"What do I owe you a dollar for?" asked the General.

"Didn't I hold your hoss for ye down in front of me house fer more'n a half an hour? Do ye think I am goin' to hold your hoss for nothing?"

The General was somewhat startled at the demand. He was surrounded by members of the staff. Rush Heidekoper, who was familiar with the case, was so indignant that he drew back his fist, and the man from Morrellville, who had his cellar cleaned out, was in imminent danger of taking a flying trip down the railroad embankment, but the General restrained him.

"The man is right. He held my horse for me," said the adjutant, with an amused smile, "and if he thinks I owe him a dollar I will pay him."

The dollar was handed over, and that was General Hastings' final transaction in Johnstown.

DON'T COME TO THE CITY.

Advice to Country Girls Who Want Social Life.

I have heard country girls talk of coming to the city for employment, giving as one reason that they wanted more social life. Well, that is just what they will not get; the woman of business is not a woman of leisure, and she has no time for society. She will find more social life in her own home, even if she be a worker, than she could ever have in the city, and there is no lonesomeness more absolute than the loneliness of a stranger in a crowd. Salaries are not large enough to permit of much relaxation in the way of entertainments, and after the day's work is over one is too tired to go in search of employment.

In the country home, in these days' daily paper and the magazine comes, so that one may keep in touch with the world, even if she be at one side of the bustle and confusion of city life. The fashion article tells her how to dress her hair and make her gown, and gives her the latest notions, in small toilet details. No town is so small that it has not its public library, where all the new books come; and the lecture and concert are not infrequent in visits. Railways and telegraphs have brought the corners of the earth together, so that one is never far away from the centres of things. There are occupations, too, for the girls who stay in the country. Do not throng to the cities in search of employment, for you will be doomed to disappointment.

THE conductor of the train whose engine exploded with fatal results yesterday near West Newton says that the explosion was not a surprise to him as the engine was an old rattlebox that should have been condemned long ago. It was in continuous service twenty six years he says. Frequent complaints had been made that the staybolts of the boiler were loose and unsafe, but little attention was paid to these objections and the engine continued in use. There was plenty of water in the boiler at the time of the accident. Most boiler explosions are veiled in mystery but this seems to be an exception to the rule. The engine exploded because it was old and worn out, and so the Coroner's jury will, no doubt, find in fixing the blame.

THE coal mines at Shamokin owned and operated by William Lucre Scott are all shut down and nearly 7,000 people are feeling the pangs of hunger, It will take a good deal of subtle argument on his part to prove to these destitute miners that he is not a labor oppressor. Has he opened up his Pattison campaign there yet?

RAILROADS

BALD EAGLE VALLEY RAILROAD.—TIME Table, Nov. 10, 1889.

STATIONS	Dis	A.M	A.M	P.M
			WESTWARD
LOCK HAVEN		4 40	9 15	4 20
Flemington—f	1.8	4 43	9 19	4 23
Mill Hall	3.0	4 46	9 22	4 26
Beech Creek	8.3	4 56	9 34	4 38
Eagleville—f	9.9	4 59	9 37	4 40
Howard	14.5	5 07	9 48	4 49
Mt. Eagle—f	17.7	5 14	9 56	4 55
Curtin	19.9	5 18	10 01	5 02
Milesburg	23.5	5 25	10 12	5 19
BELLEFONTE	26.2	5 35	10 25	5 29
Milesburg	23.5	5 45	10 35	5 30
Snow Shoe Int	24.8	5 48	10 38	5 33
Unionville	28.5	5 55	10 48	5 41
Julian	22.9	6 05	10 59	5 50
Martha	37.0	6 13	11 09	5 59
Port Matilda	40.4	6 21	11 17	6 06
Hannah—f	43.7	6 28	11 26	6 13
Fowler—f	45.0	6 30	11 29	6 15
Dix—f	46.3	6 33	11 32	6 19
Bald Eagle	49.3	6 40	11 38	6 25
Vail	51.2	6 44	11 43	6 29
East Tyrone	53.0	6 48	11 48	6 33
TYRONE	54.3	6 55	11 55	6 40
STATIONS	Dis	A.M	P.M	P.M
			EASTWARD
TYRONE		8 10	3 10	7 15
East Tyrone	1.3	8 17	3 17	7 22
Vail	3.1	8 20	3 20	7 28
Bald Eagle	5.0	8 25	3 24	7 35
Dix—f	8.0	8 30	3 30	7 39
Fowler—f	9.3	8 32	3 33	7 42
Hannah—f	10.6	8 36	3 37	7 46
Port Matilda	13.9	8 43	3 44	7 55
Martha	17.3	8 51	3 52	8 05
Julian	21.4	8 59	4 01	8 15
Unionville	25.8	9 10	4 10	8 25
Snow Shoe Int	29.5	9 18	4 18	8 35
Milesburg	30.8	9 22	4 20	8 39
BELLEFONTE	33.5	9 32	4 30	8 49
Milesburg	30.8	9 47	4 40	9 01
Curtin	34.4	10 01	4 47	9 11
Mt Eagle—f	36.6	10 06	4 55	9 17
Howard	39.8	10 16	5 02	9 27
Eagleville—f	44.4	10 30	5 10	9 40
Beech Creek	46.0	10 35	5 13	9 45
Mill Hall	51.3	10 50	5 24	10 01
Flemington	52.5	10 54	5 27	10 05
LOCK HAVEN	54.3	11 00	5 30	10 10

LEWISBURG AND TYRONE RAILROAD Time Table in effect Nov. 10th, 1889.

Westward Dis.			Stations	Dis. Eastward
P.M	A.M			A.M	P.M
5 35	9 51		SCOTIA	25.6	9 21	4 57
5 55	10 21	5.3	Fairbrook	20.3	9 09	4 37
6 07	10 28	8.7	Penns. Furnace	16.9	8 56	4 25
6 14	10 34	10.6	Hostler f	15.9	8 50	4 18
6 20	10 46	12.3	Marengo f	13.3	8 45	4 11
6 27	10 52	13.5	Loveville f	12.1	8 37	4 05
6 34	10 58	15.2	Furnace Road f	10.4	8 31	3 59
6 38	11 02	15.8	Dungarvin f	9.8	8 27	3 56
6 48	11 10	18.2	Warriors Mark	7.4	8 19	3 48
6 52	11 20	20.5	Pennington	5.1	8 10	3 40
7 10	11 32	23.5	Stover	2.1	7 58	3 28
7 20	10 40	25.6	TYRONE		7 50	3 20

BELLEFONTE & SNOW SHOE RAILROAD.—Time Table, Nov. 10, 1889.

Leaves Snow Shoe at 6.45 a m; arrives at Bellefonte at 8.45 a m.

Leaves Bellefonte at 10.25 a m; arrives at Snow Shoe at 11.16 a m.

Leaves Snow Shoe at 4.00 p m; arrives at Bellefonte at 5.50 p m.

Leaves Bellefonte at 8.05 p m; arrives at Snow Shoe at 10.00 p m.

S S BLAIR, General Supt.

LEWISBURG AND TYRONE R. R.—BELLEFONTE, NITTANY AND LEMONT R. R. To take effect Nov. 10th, 1889.

Dis.	Westward			Eastward
	a.m.	p.m.		a.m.	a.m.	p.m
.0	5.50	2.55	MONTANDON	5.30	9.10	5.45
1.5	6.15	2.15	Ar. LEWISBURG Lv	5.20	9.00	5.35
1.5	6.15	2.15	Lv. LEWISBURG Ar		9.00	5.35
5.4	6.24	2.26	Biehl f		8.51	5.26
6.8	6.30	2.32	Vicksburg f		8.45	5.20
10.7	6.41	2.43	MIFFLINBURG		8.35	5.08
13.1	6.48	2.50	Barber f		8.29	5.01
15.2	6.54	2.55	Swengle f		8.24	4.56
16.1	6.56	2.58	Millmont		8.22	4.53
18.6	7.05	3.08	LAURELTON		8.13	4.43
23.5	7.12	3.20	Pardee f		8.01	4.30
28.9	7.30	3.33	Cherry Run f		7.48	4.16
32.2	7.40	3.44	Paddy Mt. Tunnel f		7.40	4.08
33.9	7.45	3.48	Ingleby f		7.36	3.57
36.6	7.52	3.55	Coburn		7.27	3.55
39.6	7.58	4.04	Zerby f		7.19	3.45
43.4	8.10	4.15	Rising Springs		7.10	3.35
46.2	8.18	4.21	Penn's Cave f		7.00	3.27
49.2	8.25	4.28	CENTRE HALL		6.52	3.20
51.6	8.33	4.35	Gregg f		6.43	3.13
54.6	8.42	4.43	Linden Hall		6.36	3.05
55.7	8.48	4.48	OAK HALL		6.30	3.00
58.3	8.52	4.52	LEMONT		6.25	2.55
60.2	8.59	4.57	Dale Summit f		6.20	2.50
63.9	9.09	5.06	Pleasant Gap f		6.10	2.40
65.2	9.14	5.10	Axeman f		6.04	2.34
67.4	9.20	5.15	BELLEFONTE		6.00	2.30

CHAS E. PUGH ..... General Manager
ROBERT NEILSON ..... General Superintendent
E. B. WESTFALL ..... Superintendent

BELLEFONTE AND BUFFALO RUN RAILROAD.—On and after Wednesday, August 7, 1889, Trains on the Bellefonte and Buffalo Run Railroad will run as follows, leaving the PENN'A RAIL-ROAD STATION.

EASTWARD.				WESTWARD
No.6	No.2	Dis.	STATIONS	No.1	No.5
P.M	A.M			A.M	P.M
6 20	5 10	18.	Ar. BELLEFONTE Lv	6 00	3 15
6 13	9 03	17.	Scales	6 07	3 23
6 08	8 59	16.	Morris	6 11	3 27
6 03	8 54	15.	Whitmer	6 16	3 33
5 59	8 51		Linns	6 19	3 37
5 57	8 48	12.5	Hunters	6 22	3 40
5 53	8 44	11.2	Filmore	6 26	3 44
5 47	8 40	9.5	Briarly	6 32	3 50
5 43	8 36	8.	Waddles	6 38	3 55
	8 29		Matterns		4 00
	8 25		Stormstown		4 06
	8 15		Red Bank		4 16
5 39	7 39	6.9	Scotia Crossing	6 46	4 51
5 24	7 25	2.	Krumride	7 00	5 05
5 20	7 20	0.	LYSTATE COLLEGE Ar	7 04	5 09

Trains will stop at stations marked "F" when signal is given or notice to Conductor.

Train 2 connects with Trains east and west on B E V R R and S S Branch.

Train 6 connects with Trains east on B E V R R and the S S Branch.

THOS. A. SHOEMAKER, Supt.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—(Philadelphia and Erie Division.)—On and after Nov. 10th, 1889.

		WESTWARD
ERIE MAIL	leaves Philadelphia daily	11 25	p m
"	" Harrisburg "	3 30	a m
"	" Williamsport "	7 10	a m
"	" Jersey Shore "	7 35	a m
"	" Lock Haven "	7 58	a m
"	" Renovo "	8 50	a m
"	arrives Erie "	4 05	p m
NIAGRA EXP.	leaves Phil'a week days	3 50	a m
"	" Harrisburg "	12 15	p m
"	arrives at Williamsport "	3 05	p m
"	" Lock Haven "	4 15	p m
"	" Renovo "	5 15	p m
"	" Kane "	8 15	p m
Passengers by this train arrive in Bellefonte		5 15	p m
FAST LINE	leaves Philada. week days	11 45	a m
"	" Harrisburg "	3 45	p m
"	" Williamsport "	7 10	p m
"	arrives at Lock Haven "	8 02	p m
"	" Renove "	9 00	p m
NEWS EXP.	leaves ... Philadelphia	4 30	a m
"	" Harrisburg	8 10	a m
"	" Williamsport	11 10	a m
"	arrives at Lock Haven	12 10	p m
WMSPORT EXP.	leaves Philadelphia	4 25	p m
"	" Harrisburg	7 30	p m
"	arrives at Williamsport	10 30	p m
	EASTWARD
Sea Shore EXP.	leaves L. Haven w. d	7 00	a m
"	" Jersey Shore	7 35	a m
"	" Williamsport	9 15	a m
"	arrives at Harrisburg	11 30	a m
"	" Philadelphia	3 15	p m
DAY EXP.	eaves Kane week days	6 25	a m
"	" Renove	1 20	a m
"	" Lock Haven	11 15	a m
"	" Williamsport	12 20	p m
"	arrives at Harrisburg	3 15	p m
"	" Philadelphia	6 40	p m
ERIE MAIL	eaves Erie daily	8 00	p m
"	" Renovo	10 30	p m
"	" Lock Haven	11 25	p m
"	" Williamsport	12 25	a m
"	arrives at Harrisburg	3 22	a m
"	" Philadelphia	6 50	a m
RENOVO ACCN	leaves Renovo w. d	4 20	p m
"	arrives at Harrisburg	9 45	p m
"	" Philadelphia	4 25	a m
WMSPORT EXP.	leaves Williamsport	1 30	a m
"	" arrives at Harrisburg	4 30	a m
"	" leaves	7 00	a m
"	" arrives at Philadelphia	10 20	a m

Erie Mail West, Niagara Express West, and Day Express East make close connection at Lock Haven with B. E. V. R. R. trains.

Erie Mail East and West connect at Erie with trains on L S [illegible] with B P & W N N; at Emporium with [illegible], N Y & P R R, and at Driftwood with A V R R.

ROBERT NEILSON, Gen'l Agent.

ACCEPTED BY TELEBHONE.

AN ANN ARBOR PROFESSOR'S PROPOSAL TO A DETROIT GIRL IS TOO LATE.

A young lady living in Detroit for some time has been the recipient of the attentions of two young men, one a professor in the state university at Ann Arbor, and the other a traveling salesman for a New York wholesale hardware house, whose route extends through Michigan and parts of Canada.

One day last week the New Yorker arrived in Detroit late in the afternoon, and, of course, immediately started making the rounds of the retail hardware dealers, with the laudable purpose of selling each a good stock for the Winter before the representative of any rival house should put in an appearance. He had hoped to call on the object of his affections in the evening, but business was good, and 8 o'clock found him busy trying to induce a Woodward Avenue dealer to take six dozen axes, four dozen grindstones and a half carload of wooden pails.

At this stage of the proceedings a younger brother of the young lady dropped in to buy a new jack knife, and mentioned casually that the Ann Arbor Professor was up at the house. It instantly occurred to the enterprising hardware and cutlery salesman that the Professor had come for no other purpose than to lay his heart at the feet of the young lady he himself adored. For a moment there was a struggle in his breast, but he speedily got control of himself and decided that he could not possibly leave the store, as the dealer was just on the point of deciding to take the pails. But the thought of giving up the lady who had been for months constantly in his mind, waking and sleeping, was unbearable. Light suddenly dawned on him.

Handing the dealer a circular explaining the merits of his new double-bladed chopping knives, he requested the use of the merchant's telephone for five minutes, stepped to it, and rang up the central office. A moment later the telephone bell at the residence of the young lady rang sharp and decisive. The Professor had been there for an hour talking pleasantly of the grand educational work they were doing in the department of fossilology, at Ann Arbor. When the bell rang the lady's father being absent (he was a physician) she excused herself and went into the adjoining room to answer it. The Professor heard her step to the telephone and say "Yes," make a short pause and say "Yes" again. Then there was a short pause and he heard her say, "Why—why—really, this is sudden," Then there was a still longer pause and he heard her say "Yes" softly then "Good bye" and she hung up the receiver and came back into the room

The Professor moved closer to the fire and remarked that it was a chilly evening, and he thought it was going to snow, and then resumed his talk about the great work at the university. Fifteen minutes later there was a ring at the front door bell. The lady answered it and a district messenger boy handed her a plain gold ring, which she slipped on her finger and returned to the parlor. "Miss——," said the Professor, five minutes later, "I want to ask you an important question this evening. Excuse me for putting it bluntly, but wil you be my wife?" But we need not go further with this. Two minutes later the Professor went down the front steps, shook his fist at the telephone wire, and took the 8.15 train for Ann Arbor.

District Conference.

Tuesday, February 11th, the day appointed for the opening of the Altoona District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, at Clearfield, was as fair a specimen of the elegant days, of which we have had so many this mild winter, as one could wish. The Presiding Elder of the district and the usual number of ministers and laymen were on hand promptly at the hour of opening the conference. Rev. G. D. Penepacker, pastor of the church here, has perfected the arrangement for a successful conference, and so far his wisdom and enegery are apparent; At his request Rev R. H. Colburne of Houtzdale—one of the "sweet singers of Israel" took charge of the music, and is ably assisted by a choir of the members and friends in attendance. His singing is much appreciated. The conference is well sustained by the citizens

Revs. W A Carver and E H Witman were elected secretaries.

The morning session was taken up mainly by the reception of reports from the preachers, local preachers, district stewards, exhorters, class leaders, and superintendents of Sunday schools.

Rev. W. A. Carver read a paper on "The Conservation of the Forces of Methodism in the Altoona District,' which elicited some discussion.

On motion of Rev. G. D. Penepacker a committee of five was appointed to consider and report upon, the feasibility of estab.ishing a conference newspaper.

The afternoon session was better attended. Rev. N B Smith read an interesting essay on "The Benevolent Collections; Importance and Methods."

The question "The Portions of our District not Properly Occupied by Methodism" was opened for discussion by Dr. B B Hamlin, and was followed by several others. This discussion was hearty, and brought out a resolution, which was adopted, urging all the pastor's in the District to "take the collections for Home Mission work faithfully and conscientiously."

License to preach was granted to two candidates, viz: Messrs: C. E. Plummer and D. E. Philips.

The elegant audience room of the Methodist church was well filled at the evening session. After singing and prayer, a lively discussion took place on the question, "How may the membership of the church be brought in closer sympathy with the great movements of Methodism?"

Rev. J H McGarrah was the first speaker, and addressed the audience briefly, but in a clear and forceible manner.

Rev. R H Colburn sang with effect "I will tell it to Jesus my Lord," the congregation joining in the chorus with much feeling.

Rev. T M Welch read an interesting and able paper on "The Decline of the Class Meeting; Who is to blame?"

Owing to the lateness of the hour no discussion was entered into.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abcess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an Incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decator, Ohio, says "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at W. C. Keplinger & Co's drug store.

Delicate Ladies!

Who have that tired and all-gone feeling, and don't like to be disturbed, will continue to be troubled with this complaint until they renew their impure blood. Sulphur Bitters will cause new and rich blood to course through every artery and vein in the human system. See another column.

Piles! Piles! Piles!

Dr William's Indian Pile Ointment is the only sure cure for Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles ever discovered. It never fails to cure old chronic cases of long standing.

Judge Coons, Maysville, Ky., says: "Dr William's Indian Pile Ointment cured me after years of suffering."

Judge Coffinbury, Cleveland, O., says: "I have found by experience that Dr William's Indian Pile Ointment gives immediate and permanent relief."

We have hundreds of such testimonials. Do not suffer an instant longer. Sold by druggists at 50c. & $1 per box. ap4-1y

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—Friday was an awful day in this office. Two men came in to do "ye editor" up in fine style. But, we are glad to say, when supper time came we were still on deck. Now we just wish to state here and now that every man is prone to make mistakes in giving news from a distance. When we make a mistake at such times we are willing and glad to give a true statement of facts, as that is the object of this paper and not the perversion of the truth. At such times, we repeat, we are glad to make any corrections necessary. But when we make an assertion, regarding any man or thing in and around Bellefonte and we make the assertion as a fact, it is utterly useless for a man to come to us and demand a retraction for he will not get it. We are not built that way. And if any man is not satisfied with that let him get more satisfaction, but beware of what kind he gets.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A LADY'S PERFECT COMPANION.

PAINLESS CHILDBIRTH, a new book by Dr. John H. Dye, one of New York's most skillful physicians, shows that pain is not necessary in Childberth, but results from causes easily understood and overcome. It clearly proves that any woman may become a mother without suffering any pain whatever. It also tells how to overcome and prevent morning sickness' swelled limbs, and all other evils attending pregnancy. It is reliable and highly endorsed by physicians everywhere as the wife's true private companion. Cut this out: it will save you great pain, and possibly your life. Send two-cent stamp for descriptive circulars, testimonials, and confidential letter sent in sealed envelope. Address FRANK THOMAS & Co., Publishers, Baltimore, Maryland. 13t. n. 15.

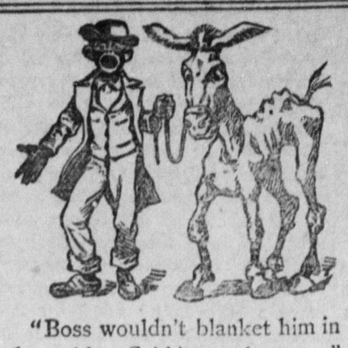
A Card to the Public.

We are now prepared to supply the public with the best grades of anthracite and bituminous coal and cunshed coke. Prompt delivery made to any part of town. Office at the glass works. Telephone connection.

BELLEFONTE FUEL AND SUPPLY CO.. o15-tf

How often we hear middle-aged people say regarding that reliable old cough remedy, N. H. Downs' Elixir: "Why, my mother gave it to me when I was a child, and I use it in my family; it always cures." It is always guaranteed to cure or money refunded.

For sale by F. P Green.



"Boss wouldn't blanket him in the stable. Said it wasn't no use."

FREE—Get from your dealer free, the 5/A Book. It has handsome pictures and valuable information about horses.

Two or three dollars for a 5/A Horse Blanket will make your horse worth more and eat less to keep warm.

Ask for { 5/A Five Mile / 5/A Boss Stable / 5/A Electric / 5/A Extra Test

30 other styles at prices to suit everybody. If you can't get them from your dealer, write us.

5/A HORSE BLANKETS ARE THE STRONGEST.

NONE GENUINE WITHOUT THE 5/A LABEL

Manufd by WM. AYRES & SONS. Philada., who make the famous Horse Brand Baker Blankets.

A FINE PIECE OF CHEWING TOBACCO IS INDEED A LUXURY FINZER'S Old Honesty COMES AS NEAR BEING A FINE PIECE OF PLUG TOBACCO AS IT IS POSSIBLE TO MAKE IT AND IS KNOWN AS A Standard Brand

AMONG DEALERS THESE GOODS ARE ON THE MARKET IN ONLY ONE SHAPE, 3x12 FULL 16 OZ. PLUG—THE MOST CONVENIENT TO CUT IN POCKET PIECES OR CARRY WHOLE.

JNO. FINZER & BROS., Louisville, Ky.

ESSENTIAL OILS.

WINTERGREEN, PEPPERMINT, PENNYROYAL, SPEARMINT, &c.

of prime quality, bought in any quantity for cash on delivery, free of brokerage, commission, storage, etc., by

DODGE & OLCOTT,

Importers and Exporters, 88 William Street, N. Y 21 35 6m

ASTHMA CURED

SCHIFFMANN'S ASTHMA CURE

Instantly relieves the most violent attack. No waiting for results. Its action is immediate, direct and certain, and a cure is the result in all curable cases. A single trial convinces the most skeptical. Price 50c. and $1.00, of druggists or by mail. Trial package Free to any address Dr. R. SCHIFFMANN, St. Paul, Minn.

COLD FREE OUR NEW 1890 Solid Gold Watch Worth $100.00. FREE.

The best watch in the world. Perfect timekeeper. Warranted heavy, SOLID GOLD hunting cases. Both ladies' and gent's sizes, with works and cases of equal value. ONE PERSON in each locality can secure one free, together with our large and valuable line of Household Samples. These samples, as well as the watch, are free. All the work you need do is to show what we send you to those who call—your friends and neighbors and those about you—that always results in valuable trade for us, which holds for years when once started, and thus we are repaid. We pay all express, freight, etc. After you know all, if you would like to go to work for us, you can earn from $20 to $60 per week and upwards. Address, Stinson & Co., Box 912, Portland, Maine.

WANTED

SALESMAN to sell choice Nursery Stock Liberal Pay Weekly. Will pay salary, but can give something better to workers. No experience needed. Write Fred. E. Young, Nurseryman, Rochster, N. Y. A. PRESENT. If you become my agent and sell $100, will give $2 for copy of this ad. Cut it out.

21—49—2 M

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Cleanses and beautifies the hair. Promotes a luxuriant growth. Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Youthful Color. Prevents Dandruff and hair falling 50c. and $1.00 at Druggists.

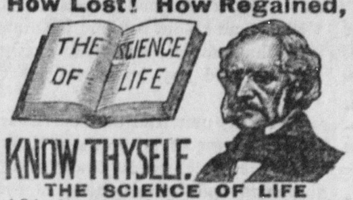
CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PENNYROYAL PILLS. Red Cross Diamond Brand.

The only reliable pill for sale. Safe and sure. Ladies, ask Druggist for the Diamond Brand, in red metallic boxes, sealed with blue ribbon. Take no other. Send 4c. (stamps) for particulars and "Relief for Ladies," in letter, by mail. Name Paper. Chichester Chemical Co., Madison Sq., Philada, Pa.

FITS CURED by old specialist physicians. Bottle of medicine free. We warrant our remedy to cure the worst cases, and the only physicians who do this to prevent your being imposed upon, by men, using false names and who are not Doctors. Because others failed is no reason for not using this medicine Give express and post office address. It costs you nothing Address Ashel Medical Bureau, 291 Broadway, N. Y. 21—49 1 year

THE GLORY OF MAN STRENGTH VITALITY!

How Lost! How Regained,



KNOW THYSELF.

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE

A Scientific and Standard Popular Medical Treatise on the Errors of Youth, Premature Decline, Nervous and Physical Debility, Impurities of the Blood.

EXHAUSTED VITALITY AND THE UNTOLD MISERIES

Resulting from Folly, Vice, Ignorance, Excesses or Overtaxation, Enervating and unfitting the victim for Work, Business, the Married or Social Relation.

Avoid unskillful pretenders. Possess this great work. It contains 300 pages, royal 8vo. Beautiful binding, embossed, full gilt. Price only $1.00 by mail, postpaid, concealed in plain wrapper. Illustrative Prospectus Free, if you apply now. The distinguished author, Wm. H. Parker, M. D., received the GOLD AND JEWELLED MEDAL from the National Medical Association for this PRIZE ESSAY on NERVOUS and PHYSICAL DEBILITY. Dr. Parker and a corps of Assistant Physicians may be consulted, confidentially, by mail or in person, at the office of THE PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, No. 4 Bulfinch St., Boston, Mass., to whom all orders for books or letters for advice should be directed as above.

MADE WITH BOILING WATER.

EPPS'S

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

COCOA

MADE WITH BOILING MILK.

BOOK AGENTS WANTED FOR MY STORY OF THE WAR By Mary A. Livermore

Her own Narrative of "FOUR YEARS PERSONAL EXPERIENCE AS NURSE" in Hospitals, Camps, and on the Battle-field. No other book has drawn so many tears. Bright, Pure, Good, of matchless interest and profound pathos, it is sweeping all before it. The "booming" book to make money on, and for the holidays. No competition. 700 pages, splendid Steel Plates, and old Battle-Flags in full colors. 61st thousand. 75,000 more Agents Wanted—Men and Women. Distance no hindrance, for we Pay Freights and give Extra Terms. Write for circulars to A. D. WORTHINGTON & CO., Hartford, Conn. 21 45 4t

Professional Cards.

WILLIAM I SWOOPE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, 21 26 1y Furst Building, Bellefonte, Pa

THOS. C. VAN TRIES, M. D., Has located permanently in Bellefonte. Office No. 15, North Spring St. 21 42 6m

JOHN KLINE, Attorney-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Office on second floor of Furst's new building north of Court House. 16-17-1f

J. G. LOVE, Attorney-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Office in rooms formerly occupied by the late Hon. Judge Hoy. ja4'71-1f

E. R. CHAMBERS, Attorney-at-Law. Office at No. 16 Crider's Ex., Allegheny street. All business promptly attended to. 17-12-1y

S. D. RAY. Attorney-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Special attention given to the collection of claims. Office on High street. 13-21f

D. H. HASTINGS. W. F. REEDER

HASTINGS & REEDER, Attorneys-at-Law, Bellefonte, Pa. Office on Allegheny street, two doors north of office formerly occupied by the late firm of Yocum & Hastings. 14-1y-13

CLEMENT DALE, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, BELLEFONTE, PA. Office in Crider's new building, corner of Allegheny and High streets. 10 45 1f

PATRICK O'FARRELL, Attorney and Counselor at Law, —and— Solicitor of Patents, Pensions and Claims

Hdqrs. JOHN A RAWLINS' POST No. 1, Department of the Potomac G A R, Washington, D C, March 15, 1886.

Comrade O'FARRELL, Adjutant of this Post, is doing good work for our comrades in his profession and business as an attorney and claim agent. The Captain was a brave soldier during the late war. He is a good lawyer and an honest man. Comrades throughout the country, who place their business in his care, will be honestly dealt with. C G BOLLINGER, Commander

1319 F Street, N W, Washington, D. C. Formerly Capt Co G, 69th N Y, (Corcoran Irish Legion). 20 26 1f

Physicians and Dentists.

H K. HOY, M. D., Oculist & Aurist, No. 4, South Spring St., Bellefonte, Pa Office hours 7 to 9 a. m., 1 to 2 and 7 to 8 p. m. 19 29 4m.

Insurance.

INSURANCE effected on all kinds of Properties, in Companies of undoubted strength and security, at standard rates.

INSURE AGAINST LOSS AND DAMAGE BY FIRE AND LIGHTNING.

9-9-1y GEORGE L. POTTER. (Furst's Building.) High street, Bellefonte

Banks and Bankers.

H. C. HUMES, Pres't.....J. P. HARRIS Cah'r FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Bellefonte Allegheny Street, Bellefonte, Pa. v6n1-1y

Shaving Saloons.

WM. MILLS FASHIONABLE BARBER AND HAIR DRESSER. Pleasant rooms and experienced workmen under Centre county bank building High street Bellefonte, Pa.

TO ADVERTISERS!

HOW TO GET THE MOST SERVICE FOR THE MONEY!

The Advertiser who would be willing to pay twenty-five cents for every family who could be "educated" up to the value of his goods would thus devote $3,000,000 to educate the 12,000,000 families which make up the 60,000,000 of the United States. This sum would do the business thoroughly in a year, for it is sufficient to pay for the insertion of a full column in every issue of every publication, and for resetting the matter, making it new in every issue of each separate publication. We will receive and execute the contract.

$5,000 One of the most successful Advertisers we ever had always ordered his advertisements in this way, "Get the best service you can for me for $5,000," leaving every detail to us. We were thus enabled to say to a Publisher, if you put this in at a large reduction from your rate it will be no criterion for further transactions. It was a surprise to find ourselves so often able to contract for the insertion of that particular advertisement at half rates, in papers which would not permit us to OFFER their columns at a penny's deviation from a printed schedule. The advertising rates of one New York paper are double those of another which has twice the circulation of the first. Similar discrepancies are not uncommon. The advertisement intrusted to us to be placed in accordance with our judgment often does double service for half the money. A dollar for twenty-five cents.

$1,000 If we are given authority to insert advertisements to a limited amount, in such mediums as ofier inducements which seem to us specially favorable, we shall not abuse the confidence reposed in us, and shall render statements of whatever is done (if anything) from day to day. When TRUSTED with the placing of an advertisement, we are put upon honor, and are bound in honor to give the best service possible for the money to be used.

$500 Leading Newspapers, especially the leading Agricultural Nswspapers, frequently issue large special editions (of twenty, fifty, a hundred, or even five hundred thousand copies,) and eslicit advertisement orders from us on terms which would often be accepted by our patrons if there was time to invite attention to the matter; but the question must generally be decided before there would be time to write and receive a reply, and often the case cannot be fully stated within the limits of a letter.

$250 Prepare a small advertisement and send with check for $250, or any other sum. The practice of asking the Agent to name his papers in advance compels him to name such as are well known, otherwise there is reason to suspect that his judgment is biased;—and the best papers do not like to have their rates quoted below their schedule.

$100 The advertiser who sends his advertisements asking for the best service possible for one hundred dollars, will often get from five to fifty per cent more service for his money, than he would had he required us to tell him in advance exactly what service we would promise; for when an estimate has been given its plan and specifications must, in a general way at least, control the advertising to be done: It ties the Agent's hands and prevents his giving his patrons TO-DAY a better service than he could have promised yesterday, because yesterday the opportunity had not presented itself: to-morrow it may have passed! Some publications are used more economically on contracts for a single issue; in others insertion for a month may be had as cheaply as for a single week but in furnishing an estimate in advance, if the Agent attempts to go into details, his correspondence becomes voluminous and the advertiser confused.

$50. If you are in the habit of occasionally inserting a small advertisement in a few papers, investing a few dollars and carefully noting the result; we desire you to make trial of our Advertising Bureau, sending us the advertisement and the money, leaving the selection of the papers to us, and judging of the service rendered by results rather than by names, circulation claims or prices. To make up careful estimates calls for much work. It don't pay to make them indiscriminately for every applicant. If such estimates as are asked for were always given the Advertiser who wished to expend $50 would frequently find himself in posession of a scheme which it would cost $500 or possibly $5,000 to carry out.

$10. We devote all necessary care to placing small orders for Advertising:—even the smallest! Time is saved by sending check with the order. Often the Advertiser is not possessed of sufficient information on the subject to enable him to judge of the merits of an estimate for advertising, and he decides by the footings of the figures whether he will or will not do the work Yet the estimate binds the Agent and makes it improper for him to make any variation in its specifications, however much his judgment may point to material changes which ought to be made. This is specially liable to be the case when the order comes a considerable time after the estimate was made.

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING BUREAU, 10 Spruce St., New York.

DO YOU READ

THE COSMOPOLITAN

THAT BRIGHT, SPARKLING YOUNG MAGAZINE,

The Cheapest Illustrated Monthly in the World.

25 Cents a Number. $2.40 a Year.

THE COSMOPOLITAN is literally what the press universally calls it, "The Best and Cheapest Illustrated Magazine" in the world.

Subscribe—An Unusual Opportunity!

The Cosmopolitan per year - - - $2 40
The Republican - - - - 1 50
The price of both publications - - - - $3 90
We will furnish both for only - - $2 45

THE COSMOPOLITAN furnishes, for the first time in magazine literature,

A Splendidly Illustrated Periodical at a Price Hitherto Deemed Impossible.

TRY IT FOR A YEAR.

It will be a liberal education to every member of the household. It will make the nights pass pleasantly. It will give you more for the money than you can obtain in any other form

Do you want a first-class Magazine, giving annually 1,500 pages by the ablest writers and cleverest artists—as readable a Magazine as money can make—a Magazine that makes a specialty of live subjects.

SEND $2.45 TO THIS OFFICE AND SECURE BOTH COSMOPOLITAN & REPUBLICAN.

Young professional and business men seeking paying locations, should read the "Business Opportunities" shown in The Cosmopolitan. They a resomething never before given to the public.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

I make a specialty of the treatment of Consumption and all Pulmonary Diseases; and never fail to stop night sweats, reduce cough, and relieve the dyspeptic symptoms in ten days. CONSULTATION FREE. Call or address.

Edward Kirk, M. D., Bingham House, Philadelphia, Pa. rep-22-4-6t.

Customer—You recommended a young lady with $10,000 to me, and I was just going to marry her.

Matrimonial Agent—Well, why didn't you?

"But I have discovered that she is paralyzed."

"Well, if you want a wife to climb mountains or run foot races you should say so beforehand."

Mr. Pigsticker—Will you be mine, dearest?

Miss Wabash (consulting her memorandum)—Let me see' I can't really. I am engaged to Mr. Dearborn, but I will be at liberty to marry you on the —no, I shall marry Mr. Madison on the 1st of June, but if you wait until the last of October, I——' My darling."

Bobby—I want some more candy.

Mother—I can't give you any more candy.

When anybody has too much candy a big black bear comes and eats him.

Bobby—Then give me the paper, so the black bear won't eat you up.

'Look here, you've got to strike!' said an individual to a workman.

'Who are you?

'I'm a walking delegate.'

'Oh, you are, are you? Well, now let me see you walk.'

Mrs. Slimson (severely)—Tommy, how did you get your stockings so wet?

Tommy [evasively]—Guess my feet must leak.

Tom—Your horse drinks very little water. Why is it?

Ned—O, he's Kentucky stock, you know.

"Do they pay the superintendent of this inebriate asylum a large salary?"

"No, but they give him the copyright to all the funny things the inmates say and he makes a good deal writing for the comic papers."

Stranger (in New York)—Will you please tell me what street this is?

Old New Yorker—Look at the lamp-post—oh! forgot; let's step in this store and ask!

A new idea embraced in Ely's Cream Balm. Catarrh is cured by cleansing and healing, not drying up. It is not a liquid or snuff, but is easily applied into the nostrils. Its affect is magical and a thorough treatment will cure the worst cases. Price 50c.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated without pain or dread and with perfect safety. Try the remedy. It cures catarrh, hay fever and colds in the head. It is easily applied into the nostrils and gives relief with the first application. Price 50c.

Gen. B F Buttler!

Still lives, so do hundreds of others who have been cured of Rheumatism and Neuralgia by the great blood purifier. Sulphur Bitters. Send for testimonials,

Dr. Hoot on Speer's Wine.

Dr. Moot, of the Bellevue Hospital College, gives his unqualified endorsement to Speer's Wines; and recoomends their use to sickly females and consumptives. It can be procured of any first-class druggist in the country.

'What a genius you are!' exclaimed a young lady visiting an inventor's workroom.

'I believe you could make almost everything.'

'Yes,' replied the young man, modestly.

'Is there anything you would like to see me make?'

'Make me an offer, 'whispered the girl shyly.

The blood is the source of health. Keep it pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is peculiar in its curative power.

Bellefonte Republican.

BELLEFONTE, CENTRE CO., PA.,

A Weekly Political and Family Journal

CIRCULATION THROUGHOUT CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA.

REGULAR ADVERTISING RATES.—Twenty cents a line for each insertion.

Annual and Six Months' Contracts at Special Rates

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION:

ONE YEAR	$1.50
SIX MONTHS	75
THREE MONTHS	40

If paid Strictly in advance the REPUBLICAN and Philadelphia Weekly Press One Year—$1.50

SECRETARY TRACY'S PLAN.

There is a curious confusion in the public mind about the plan for a new navy urged by Secretary Tracy and the very different plan proposed by the so-called 'policy board,' says the New York Hearld. It seems to be a general impression that the two agree. The fact is they totally disagree, and it is important that this should be understood. The policy board proposed an enormous navy of the European type. That public opinion rightly and at once condemned. They proposed, among other things, forty-two battle ships. Secretary Tracy proposes as an eventual force in his report seventeen battle ships, of which the construction of only eight shall be authorized at once.

The secretary has based himself upon the ground that we ought to have at all times as strong and numerous a navy as we had in 1860. No one who approves of a navy at all will dispute that proposition. In 1860 we had a few of the best ships in the world and a total of about one hundred vessels of all classes. It will scarcely be called extravagant to say that we ought to have as many hereafter. We have now forty-two ships built or authorized —namely, twenty-three new unarmored vessels, eight small iron vessels of the old navy, which will probably continue in service; eight coast or harbor defenders and three battle ships.

The secretary holds that we ought next to begin the construction of eight powerful battle ships. That will go only a part of the way to putting us where we stood in 1860. He believes that while it was well enough to begin the experiment of naval reconstruction with unarmored cruisers, and to complete the monitors already started, the time has come to replace the few first class ships we had in 1860.

Everything is now ready for the building of such battle ships. After twenty years of varied experiment all the states of Europe have settled down on what is practically a single type. The battle ships now building by the principle powers differ in slight details, but they are practically identical in important features—a thing never known before. For the first time also the steel industry and the shipbuilders in the United States are ready to undertake the work, and American battle ships can be built of American materials by American labor. The experiment has been tried with the cruiser types and has proved a phenomenal success. There is no doubt that the battle ships will be equally successful.

The country cannot get along with a navy of cruisers and harbor defenders only. It never did. We do not need or want to rival the numbers of the English or the French navy, or to build the unwieldy monsters so popular with the Italians, but we do need a certain number of battle ships of moderate size —from eight to ten thousand tons. Three qualities these vessels must possess—force offensive and defensive, speed and coal endurance and ability to fight their guns in any sea. To meet their conditions they must have heavy guns and armor, considerable size and a fairly high freeboard, so that their guns will be well out of water. A moderate force of such vessels is the ideal force for the United States, giving strength and nobility and the highest possible efficiency at the least cost.

To talk about building monitors or vessels of three to four thousand tons as the main reliance of the United States at the present day is folly. We have been floundering in that quicksand long enough. Fifty monitors would not equal in defensive strength a force of twenty battle ships.

The recognized type of battle ship today preserves and embodies all the best features of Ericsson's invention, without the latter's defects. It is a turret ship not a broadside ironclad, as the advocates of monitors would have us believe, in their ignorance of the fact that the broadside ironclad was years ago discarded. The heavy guns in its turrets, like those of the monitor, have a clear fire ahead and astern and on both sides; but whereas the monitor's guns were placed so low that the sea washed over the ports, the guns of the battle ship can be fought in any sea. The low speed and small coal endurance of the monitor absolutely preclude her from effective cruising; she could neither overtake nor get away from an enemy, and if she started on a cruise of any length her coal would give out long before she got home. As a floating battery in the harbor the monitor will have her uses. But what our new navy needs to bring it up to the old standard is a small fleet of real battle ships, such as the secretary urges and as the Hale bill authorizes. That is a very different thing from the preposterous recommendations of the policy board.

Personal Pencilings.

Mrs. J. C. Harper has just recovered from a severe attack of the grippe.

Mr. R C Irvin, who went to Williamsport recently, has returned to Bellefonte.

Mr. Mesh Williams, of Benore, was in Bellefonte on Monday, and called at this office ere he left town.

Sheriff Cooke returned on Thursday from Pittsburg, where he had taken Wm. Young to the penitentiary.

John Foster, of Aronsburg, has been been appointed a mail clerk on railroad between Tyrone and Clearfield.

Mr. Charles McDermott and daughter, of Charleston, West Va., are visiting at the home of his parents, in this place.

Mrs. William Nicolls, of Philadelphia, is at present visiting at the home of her father, Mr. S. S. Lyon, in this place.

Sheriff W. H. Leahy of Lock Haven, is in town to witness the Hopkins execution and to see that a good job is made of it.

Capt. Thomas E. Clark, Philipsburg's famous coal and iron policeman, came to Bellefonte yesterday to attend the execution.

Mr, John Bullock, of Bellefonte, has been in Philipsburg during the past week soliciting orders for merchant tailoring.

Mrs. Simon Hockenbury, of Nye Bank, died on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock and was buried Thursday morning at ten.

Mr. Fisher, the manager of the Pittsburg office of the American Press Association, was in Bellefonte on Wednesday and called at this office.

Mrs. Stewart Pierce, and family of Philadelphia, are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McGinley, in this place.

Mrs. D. H. Hastings was in Harrisburg on Tuesday evening where she assisted Mrs, Beaver in a reception given at Executive mansion.

The Centre Reporter says: Miss Lulu Harper, of Bellefonte, and Miss Bess Evans, of Lock Haven, spent Thursday last as guests of Simon Harper, and of the town.

Mr. Calvin Ray, of Altoona, came to Bellefonte on the 9 o'clock train on Monday evening, and we know of one person who will be made happy by this knowledge.

Our office was honored on Monday by a call from Annie E. Underwood, of Grampian Hills, Clearfield county Come again, please; we are always glad to see the ladies come in.

It was a mistake in Saturday's NEWS to say that Newton Steel had been appointed one of the special guard for the Hopkins execution. It should have been Theodore Steel instead.

Misses Annie McLaughlin and Annie Curry, of Bellefonte, spent Friday night in Lock Haven as the guests of the Misses Kane, on West Clinton street. The young ladies departed for Renovo on Saturday.

Snooper—I have a brilliant scheme for making money.

Simeral—What is it?

'Going to take a couple of camels and exhibit them in Kentucky.'

'There's no money in that.'

'Yes, there is. I'll advertise that they go ten days without drinking,and everybody will want to see what they look like.'

Schoolmistress—"Tommy, what did you disobey me for?"

Tommy—"'Cos I thought you'd whip me."

Schoolmistress—"What did you want me to whip you for?"

Tommy—"'Cos pa said he would if you didn't, and he hurts."

Birdie Dougherty may be only a miss of four Summers, but in repartee she does not propose to even let the principal of our schools get the best of her. Miss Birdie was visiting Prof. Patterson's school a few days ago, when the professor, in a joking way, said:

'Birdie, you must be a good little girl or I will send you home.'

'If you send me home,' replied Birdie, when you come to see my sister I'll send you home.'

As a matter of course, after that,Birdie remained.

Miss Brainy (of Boston)—I want to have you send home a suit of clothes for my litle brother Willie. He is eleven years of age.

Salesman—Yes, madam. Should you say—er—that he was large or small for his age?

Miss Brainy—Well, I don't know that Willie has any superfluity of adipose tissue as compared with other boys of his age, but he is unusually in the habit of arriving at his destination with both pedal extremities firmly placed on this mundane sphere.

Elected in Philadelphia.

A special telegram from Philadelphia states that Warwick was elected City Solicitor, John Taylor, receiver of taxes, and Reyburn to Congress from the 4th district, to fill the vacancy caused by Kelly's death.

ANDREWS DAY SET.

IT IS UNOFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THAT ANDREWS WILL BE HANGED

THE 9TH DAY OF APRIL.

The Death Warrant Said to be Signed But it Has not yet Reached Bellefonte.

It is unofficially announced that the day for the execution of Alfred Andrews has been fixed by Governor Beaver as Wednesday, April 9th. The death warrant has been signed by the governor and will probably reach Bellefonte in a day or two.

Andrews is bearing up as well as Hopkins. Far better since his trial and conviction than he did before. He professes to have found comfort in spiritual guidance and says he is ready to die, too.

Of the two men Andrews has less sympathy expressed for him than Hopkins had. His crime, was far the most brutal, though God knows either one was worlds too bad.

Pennsylvania State College Boys Banqueted at Achenbach's.

On Tuesday night the Class of '93 of Pennsylvania State College came to Bellefonte in too hacks and made merry over a banquet at Mr. B C Achenbach's on Bishop street. The class surrounded the tables and sat down to supper at 11 p. m. sharp. Grace was said by Chaplain W J McDowell. The following toasts were offered and responded to as designated: "Class of 93," R W Williamson; "Mathematics," W S Birdsoll; "Our Co-Eds," Roy B Mattern, "Class of 91," J M Small; "Our Gym," B F Williams; "Our College Days," C E Chadman; "Ye Sophs," J B Greer; "The Committee," C M Caughey. This was followed by a few informal toasts. Mr. J H Mitchell was toastmaster.

The following members of the class were present: J H Mitchell, G H Danforth, J B Greer, J A C Love, E P Butts, F K Orbin, C M Caughey, S Krumrine, J J Kintner, C J Givin, Fred Dale, C A Curningo, C Eackus, M J McDonnell, B F Williams, C K Ford, W MacFarren, H E Greenwood, C R Fay, H W Mattern R G Furst, W K Gibboney, J H Furst, J K Furst, J M Small, C E Chadman, D W Gross, W J McDowell, Roy B Mattern and W S Boidsoll.

Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the post office at Bellefonte, Centre county, Pa., Feb 17, 1890.

Miss Eleanor Bradley, John Barger, Thomas Cornell, John Folk—2, W T Fletcher, A Greenman, Lizzie Garmery, Nathan Harris, Miss Sarah Lyle, Miss Emma C Norris, Mr. Robinson.

Persons inquiring for letters named in the above list will please say advertised.

J. A. FIEDLER, P. M.

THE TRUE WIFE.

Oftentimes I have seen a tall ship glide by against the tide as if drawn by some invisible bowline, with a hundred strong arms pulling it. Her sails were unfurled, her streamers were dropping, she had neither side-wheel nor stern-wheel; still she moved on stately, in serene triumph, as with her own life. But I know that on the other side of the ship, hidden beneath the great bulk that swam so majestically, there was a little toilsome steam-tug, with a heart of fire and arms of iron, that was tugging it bravely on; and I know if the little steam-tug untwined her arm, and left the ship, it would wallow and roll about, and drift hither and thither, and go off with the refluent tide, no man knows whither. And so I have known more than one genius high-decked, full-freighted, full-sailed, gay-pennoned, but that for the bare, toiling arms, and brave, warm-beating heart of the faithful little wife that nestles close to him, so that no wind or wave could part them, would have gone down the stream, and have been heard of no more.—[O. W. HOLMES.

LOVE.

It is not the gods who save us; it is our maidens. A youth sits on a rock by the sea. A soft white hand lies tremulously in his. The music of a distant bell, mingled with the hum of the wild bee, is wafted from the shore on the wings of the evening twilight, fragrant with the breath of hawthorn and the clover. The dew gleams on the rock's fringe of fern, and moistens the lips of the blue-bell. The sun sinks behind the ocean's vastness; and, far off in the sky's immensity, the stars come forth in the awfulness and the silence. Through a rift in a mass of vapor gleams the silvern splendor of the moon, and the million ripples of the ocean dance from where the waters murmur on the beach away to the line where they kiss the stars on the horizon's rim. And the moonlight reveals on the rock, like two angels in a holy dream, the youth and the maiden, the brown hair mingled with the golden tresses, the eye lit with a gleam of joy above the joy of the earth and two bosoms heaving with excess of bliss, as bosoms did before man had sinned and the gates of Eden were closed. That youth can never, in manhood's prime or in life's decay, sink so low as he might have done had he never been a guest at that divine festival of Love. He cannot live in the depths of the valley who has been on the mountain with God.—(SALADIN, in the Agnostic Journal.)

Lace and ribbon fine corset covers, night gowns at Garman's. f 19 1w

Consumption Surely Cured.

TO THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above-named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., N. Y.

BEFORE YOU BUY A STEAM ENGINE OR BOILER

SEND FOR OUR CATALOGUE AND PRICES

ATLAS ENGINE WORKS, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

TO WEAK MEN

Suffering from the effects of youthful errors, early decay, wasting weakness, lost manhood, etc., I will send a valuable treatise (sealed) containing full particulars for home cure, FREE of charge. A splendid medical work; should be read by every man who is nervous and debilitated. Address, Prof. F. C. FOWLER, Moodus, Conn.

PILES SYMPTOMS—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form and protrude, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT is sold by druggists, or mailed by any address on receipt of price, 50 cts. a box; 3 boxes, $1.25. Address letters, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Philadelphia, Pa.

SKIN DISEASES SWAYNE'S OINTMENT ABSOLUTELY CURES. The simple application of "SWAYNE'S OINTMENT" without any internal medicine, will cure any case of Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Piles, Itch, Sores, Pimples, Erysipelas, &c., no matter how obstinate or long standing. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail for 50 cts. 3 Boxes, $1.25. Address, DR. SWAYNE & SON, Philadelphia, Pa. Ask your druggist for it.

I CURE FITS!

When I say CURE I do not mean merely to stop them for a time, and then have them return again. I MEAN A RADICAL CURE. I have made the disease of

FITS, EPILEPSY or FALLING SICKNESS,

A life-long study. I WARRANT my remedy to CURE the worst cases. Because others have failed is no reason for not now receiving a cure. Send at once for a treatise and a FREE BOTTLE of my INFALLIBLE REMEDY. Give Express and Post Office. It costs you nothing for a trial, and it will cure you. Address H. G. ROOT, M. C., 183 PEARL ST., NEW YORK

Wolff's ACME Blacking IS A GREAT LABOR SAVER. A SHINE LASTS A WEEK. RAIN AND SNOW DON'T AFFECT IT NO BRUSHING REQUIRED. MAKES A SHOE WATERPROOF. USED BY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN. Can be washed like Oil Cloth, and absolutely Softens and Preserves all kinds of Leather. Ask for it, and do not give up till you get it, and you will be well rewarded. Sold by Shoe Stores, Grocers, Druggists, &c. For Harness it is unequaled. WOLFF & RANDOLPH, PHILADELPHIA.

STOCK QUOTATIONS,

Reported up to 12 o'clock, by

DE HAVEN & TOWNSEND, BANKERS,

428 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

Stocks Bought and Sold and carried on favorable terms

PHILADELPHIA, Feb, 7, 1890.

	Bid	Asked
U S 4½'s, coupon	104½	⅝
" 4's	123½	⅝
Pennsylvania R R	54½	⅝
Philadelphia & Reading R R	29½	⅝
Lehigh Valley R R	52½	53
Lehigh Coal and Navigation Co	85½	⅝
Western N Y & Penn	19½	⅝
New Jersey Central	117½	⅝
Northern Pacific Com	31½	⅝
" " Prefered	74⅝	⅝
Oregon Transcontinental	26	⅝
Union Pacific	66½	⅝
Western Union	84½	⅝
Richmond Terminal	22⅝	23
Louisville & Nashville	90½	¼
Pacific Mail	33½	⅝
Delaware, Lackawanna & Western R	136½	⅝
New York & New England	48⅝	⅝

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans, ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 Wall-st., N.Y.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

CURE

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, &c. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing

SICK

Headache, yet CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are equally valuable in Constipation, curing and preventing this annoying complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the stomach, stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels. Even if they only cured

HEAD

Ache they would be almost priceless to those who suffer from this distressing complaint; but fortunately their goodness does not end here, and those who once try them will find these little pills valuable in so many ways that they will not be willing to do without them. But after all sick head is the bane of so many lives that here is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

ACHE

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO., New York.

Small Pill. Small Dose. Small Price.

For Information about the South

Address with Stamp,

THE OFFICIAL IMMIGRATION DEPOT of Fifteen Southern States,

CARL ROBINSON, Secretary,

RALEIGH, N. C

Bellefonte Markets.

BELLEFONTE, November 6, 1889.

Red Wheat, new, per bushel	78
Mixed wheat, new, per bushel	73
Buckwheat, new, per bushel	40
Rye per bushel	45
Corn (shelled)	40
Corn (ears)	40
Oats	25
Barley	45
Cloverseed, fair to good	$4.00
do prime and extra prime	4.40
do choice	4.80
Flour, retail, per barrel	5.20
Flour, wholesale	4.50
Hay choice mixed, per ton	$ 8.00
" prime timothy " "	8.50
" choice " " "	9.00

Provision Markets.

[Corrected weekly by Eureka Grocery Co.]

Apples, dried, per pound	5
Green apples, per bushel	50
Cherries dried, per pound, seeded	12
Dried Currants, per pound	10
New Raisins, per pound	10—12½
Beans, per quart	10
Fresh Butter, per pound	25
Cheese, per pound	16
Country Hams, per pound	12½
Hams, sugar cured	15—17
Shoulders	12½
Breakfast Bacon	12½—14
Country Bacon	10
Lard, leaf, per pound	12½
Lard, country, per pound	10
Eggs, per dozen	20
Potatoes, per bushel	50
Dried Beef	20
Canned Beef, 2 pound can	25
Country Side, per pound	10
Canned Tomatoes, per can	10—12½—15
Canned Corn, per can	10—12½
Lemons, per dozen	25
Dried sweet Corn, per pound	16
Apple Butter, per gallon	50
Roller Flour, per sack	$1 30

Sheriff's Sales.

BY VIRTUE OF SUNDRY WRITS OF FIERI Facias, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county and to me directed, I will be exposed at Public Sale at the Court House, in the Borough of Bellefonte on SATURDAY, MARCH 8th, A. D. 1890, at 2 o'clock p. m., the following described property to wit:

ALL those two certain messuages, tenements and tracts of land situated in Penn township, Centre county, Pa., bounded and described as follows to wit: One thereof beginning at a post along public road along lands of Adam Hosterman, thence north sixty three and three fourth degrees east one hundred and nineteen and nine tenths perches to post; thence north 22½° west 66.2 perches along lands of Francis J. Forster to a white oak; thence by same north 86½° east 17 perches to stone; thence by same north 2½° west 95.1 perches to post; thence by land of Adam Hosterman, north 89½° west 26 perches to post; thence north 22° west 70 perches to post; thence by land of Harvey Krumrine; north 88½° west 58 perches to stone; thence south 7½° west 9 perches to white oak; thence by land of John Keen south 42½° east 148.4 perches to white oak; thence south 48½° west 114.7 perches to stone; thence by land of D. B. Geary south 19½° east 73.6 perches to a post at public road, the place of beginning containing 85 acres and 5 perches neat measure. The other thereof beginning at a stone on line of Samuel Krape, thence by land of Francis J. Forster north 18½° west 58.5 perches to post; thence by same north 60½° east 69½ perches to post; thence by Samuel Krape south 24½° east 22 perches to public road; thence by same north 67° east 51.2 perches to stone; thence by said public road south 79° east 20.8 perches to corner; thence south 7° west 22.2 perches to stone; thence by Samuel Krape south 61½° west 137.8 perches to stone the place of beginning, containing 39 acres and 73 perches, neat measure. Said two tracts adjoining each other and constituting one farm having thereon erected a two-story plank frame house a large frame bank barn, 40x60 feet with shed attached and usual outbuildings.

Also, a certain lot of ground situated in Millheim, Centre county, Pa., bounded as follows to wit: On the north by turnpike road, on the east by an alley, on the south by mill race bank, now owned by D. A. Musser's estate, and on the west by lot formerly of John Keen and marked in the general plan of said town with No. 7; thereon erected a two-story double frame dwelling house, wash house, wood house, frame stable and usual outbuildings.

Seized, taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Jacob Sankey,

TERMS: No deed will be acklowledged until the purchase money be paid in full.

ROBERT COOKE Jr., Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office, Bellefonte, Pa., February 12, 1890.

ORPHAN'S COURT SALE: Pursuant to an order of the Orphans Court of Centre county, there will be exposed to sale on the premises in Liberty township, on Tuesday, the 18th day of March, A. D. 1890, at 1.30 o'clock P. M., the following described lot of ground late of the estate of James Wagner, deceased:

All that certain lot or piece of ground situate in the Township of Liberty, bounded on the North by land of W. W. Clark; on the East by land of W. W. Clark and P. B. Crider; on the South and West by land of Wm. Schenck, containing Ten acres, be the same more or less.

Terms of Sale: 15 per cent. on day of sale; 40 per cent. on confirmation of sale, and 50 per cent., with interest in one year thereafter, to be secured by bond and mortgage.

Hastings & Reeder, Attorneys. Wm. F. Carter, Administrator.

22 5-4t

TYPICAL TIRESOME PEOPLE.

Bores Whom Everybody Is Careful to Avoid.

Do you keep a list—a list of the people who are tiresome to you? We used to call them bores, but as this is always suggestive of getting there eventually, the name has been dropped, though the people exist, says a writer in the Washington Herald.

The wise woman is the one who has a book on the cover of which is written in large letters and red ink, "Beware of—"

The educated young woman who concludes that the alphabet has been invented since her birth.

The frivolous creature who thinks you are "just dying" to know how her underwear is made.

The lovely young man who wears three diamond rings and thinks you are "just too sweet for anything."

The horrible old hypocrite who talks about her position in society and the use she is to the world at large, when she would best serve it by decorating the inside of a tomb.

The old man who kisses you because he remembers your mother when she was a girl.

The young man who is loud and underbred, but who speaks to you and mortifies you and claims a right to acquaintance because he once lived near you.

The maid-servant who wants to talk about the last house in which she lived.

The man, woman, or nondescript who never tires of telling you that they have seen better days and who counts on that announcement covering everything in the future, and never making an effort to think how really good this time is after all.

The man with a low-cut shirt, the woman with dyed hair, the boy who hasn't been taught good manners and the girl who has been educated to believe that impudence and intelligence are synonymous.

The people who flatter, who find fault, and who never know what it is to say a good word for their neighbors.

L'ENFANT TERRIBLE.

After the conventional embrace the lady from Chicago said: "You must have had a very tiring day, Mrs. Blank."

"Yes, indeed, I have dear, and I feel very fatigued."

"Yes—I never saw you look so pale before.'

"Oh, that's powder,' broke in the 6-year-old infant terrible, Miss Nellie, who had not been a spectator in her mother's boudoir for nothing.

Julia and her affianced just married.

Little Brother (to his pa)—'Pa, don't your hands feel better?'

Pa—'What do you mean, my son?'

Little Brother—'I heard you tell ma a spell ago that you would feel better when you got Julia off your hands, and as she weighs two hundred pounds I thought—'

Johnnie is hurriedly sent to bed.

Mother—"Willie, where are the dried pears that were in the pantry?"

Willie—"All gone, mamma."

Mother—"I know that, you naughty child. Did you eat them?"

Willie (boldly)—"How could I, when it says on the box, 'Evaporated Fruit.' Guess they just 'vaporated 'fore I could get 'em."

Dr. Moot on Speer's Wine.

Dr. Moot, of the Bellevue Hospital College, gives his unqualified endorsement to Speer's Wines; and reccomends their use to sickly females and consumptives. It can be procured of any first-class druggist in the country.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

)-1890-(

The New York Weekly Herald

—: AT :—

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

Is the Best and Cheapest Family Paper in the United States.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

During the year 1890 it will even exceed itself in the variety of its contents and its efforts to please its subscribers. New features will be added to its regular departments, including first-class

 ILLUSTRATIONS. ***

Its well known Specialties are:

PRACTICAL FARMING AND GARDENING,
PROGRESS IN SCIENCE,
WOMAN'S WORK,
STORIES BY THE BEST AUTHORS,
CHOICE FLASHES OF WIT AND HUMOR,
EXCLUSIVE NEWS FOR VETERANS,
LITERATURE AND ART.

Information on all Subjects.

Only One Dollar a Year. Do not fail to Subscribe to the New York Weekly Herald.

Address, JAMES GORDON BENNETT, NEW YORK HERALD, New York City

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.—Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between J. Fearon Mann and Archibald Allison, trading as J. Fearon Mann & Co., was dissolved by mutual consent January 7th, 1890, Archibald Allison retiring. The business will be continued by J. Fearon Mann, who will pay all debts and receive all moneys due J. Fearon Mann & Co.

22-6-4t J. FEARON MANN, ARCHIBALD ALLISON

A Glorious Victory Won.

On last Wednesday morning, February 12th, at fifteen minutes before six o'clock death visited the home of Mr. Harry Shuey and claimed him as his own,

The funeral took place at the residence of the deceased on Friday, the 14th at one o'clock, services conducted by Rev. Koontz. Many relatives and friends assembled to pay their last tribute of respect and for the last time to look upon the lifeless remains of their dear and beloved friend.

Notwithstanding the gloomy weather the funeral was very largely attended to the Shiloh cemetery where the interment took place. Mr. Harry Shuey was twenty-two years, six months and twelve days old.

'Tis sad to be called away in the full bloom of manhood, when life is most sacred and the future full of promise and beauty, but death is a contingency over which man has no control. God giveth and He taketh away; not our will but His be done, What is best for us we know not.

The deceased was a young man of high esteem and adorned with all those virtues that belong to and to make up every good person's qualities. That made life pleasant and that endeared the subject of this sketch to all that knew him. Harry was a member of the Evangelical church of Lemont, having united in the cause of Christ about one year ago and in that faith he bid this sinful world a final farewell.

His dying words were, "glory be to God." Mr. Shuey was one of twenty young men whom were converted at the same time and about the only one that proved faithful. Boys, stop and think for one moment; see where you stand. A young wife, a bright little girl and an aged mother were leftto mourn their loss.

Loving friends, weep not for me,
I long to be at rest.
How happy, happy I shall be
When pillowed on my Saviour's breast.

'Twas sad to see the breathe thy last
But Jesus lovingly said "Come."
Now thy sufferings all are past
And thy sweet spirit rests at home,

Oh! the hope, the hope is sweet,
That we soon in Heaven may meet;
There we all shall happy be,
Rest from pain and sorrow free.

Harry will be missed by all who knew him—most of all in his own home. He met all with a smile, was every man's friend and the enemy of none. Well may the poet say:

What peaceful hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still;
For they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

Weep not fond wife and mother. Thy dear one has but gone to that celestial abode. The songs of the angels mingled with the harps of heaven now fall upon his ears. Mourn not, kind sisters; though your brotherwill never greet you here again he has gone to that eternal city just before you, where the sunlight of glory floods all its streets and bathes its many mansions. Friends who preceeded him in glory now are greeting him.

A FRIEND.

Gregg Post Restaurant.

The annual entertainment given by the members of Gregg Post of this place, assisted by the W. R. C., will be repeated on Washington's Birthday, which comes on Saturday next of this year.

The profits derived from these anniversarial occasions, have always been placed in the charity fund of the Post. The same has been liberally dispensed to the most deserving and needy of those who served their country in the late war.

Since there is an end to all things, so has there been to the last measure of this blessing, which has been the means of cheering so many hearts and lifting them over the slough of despaird in to the more plentiful harvests of the future.

Although the citizens of Bellefonte have always given liberally, in view of their advancing years, which must bring this weight of wants, enough to some times break down even the sturdy veteran, we ask that the citizens of Bellefonte will even deal more liberally with those who have been appointed to go around and solicit supplies. It will be the duty of the Entertainment Committee of Gregg Post to canvass every street for these provisions so essential to the success of the restaurant.

The Gregg Post Restaurant will open at 11.30 a. m Saturday morning, Feb. 22nd, when Turkey dinner will be served at 35 cents. All dishes paid for as the price is set down on the bill of fare. Oysters in all styles, chicken salad, ice cream and cake will be served till 11. p. m. Respectfully Ent. Com. 95.

To Musical People,

A recent addition to a very popular series of music-books, is "Piano Classics, Vol. 2." Those who have used the first volume [and thousands have done so], will gladly welcome this second collection. It consists of carefully selected piano-pieces by some of the most prominent composers of Europe. Each piece is a gem of its own kind; and, while all of the music in the book is of a really artistic standard, it is not so difficult as to preclude its use and enjoyment by players of moderate experience. It is of the same grade as that of the first volume. The book is large, sheet music size, [same style as the other classic collections], and will please all lovers of good piano-music. It will be mailed to any address, postage paid, on receipt of the price, $1.00, by Oliver Ditson Company, Boston, Mass. (Send for free catalogues and circulars of music and books.)

PETERSON for March is a number of exceptional beauty and excellence. The principal engravings are fine works of art. The double fashion plate is very attractive, and there are numerous dainty and original needlework designs. The opening article, 'A Picture from Italy' is a well-told reminiscence, and the views of picturesque Sorrento and its environs are capitally done. Mrs Lucy H Hooper's serial. 'A Mannificent Marriage,' grows more absorbing as it nears its close, and Miss Alice Bowman begins a novelet of Louisiana life, called 'The Story of Dagma,' which opens in a very delightful way. 'The News He Brings,' and 'His Mistake,' are among the most noticeable of the short stories, but they are all good. 'Things Worth Knowing' has a most useful article on 'The Linen Closet,' and the household department offers numerous recipes and suggestions which will be welcome to ladies. Terms, $2.00 per year. Address Peterson's Magazine, No. 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

Handling the Dead.

It has been declared to be a nuisance dangerous to the public health to remove any dead body fron the ground and transport it to any other place for burial even in the same graveyard, and because of this the State Board of Health has adopted a set of rules governing the removal or transfer of such bodies, and hereafter no such removal dare be made, under penalty of heavy fine, without a legal and authorized permit obtained from the Chief Burgess or Mayor of the town, by consent and direct of either the select or common council of said place.

The certificates issued have certain rules and regulations attached which must be complied with ere the removal can be made. This is a safe guard to the health of the general public and one that surely should meet the approval of all. The rules provide that it is not at all allowable to remove a dead body between April 1st and October 1st.

A Pleasant Gathering.

The pleasant and comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. John T Johnston, on Linn street, was thronged with about 80 invited guests, the occasion being a social party given by Mr. and Mrs. Johnston. Most all the representative citizens of Bellefonte were present, including General and Mrs. Hastings and Mrs. Weaver, of Clearfield, the latter a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P Harris, of this place.

An elegant collation was served at 10 o'clock and the edibles spread on the handsomely furnished tables were as appetizing as they were attractive. During the evening Miss Lillie Aikens entertained the company with the rendition of a few choice selections of music and W. I. Swoope, Esq., declaimed for his part in the entertainment. The company broke up and all departed for their homes by half past twelve o'clock.

Received His Commission.

Capt. P. D. Bricker, the Supervisor of the Sixth Census District, which embraces Centre county, received his commission on Saturday and it was accompanied with about fifty pages of instructions. The Captain states that he will probably appoint between 150 and 200 enumerators in the District. According to the instructions, the Captain says, honorably discharged soldiers, who are qualified are to have the preference. He also says that when the enumerators read over the instructions he thinks they will not be so anxious for the position.

The Outlook for Timber.

The month of February is now half gone, and the prospects for getting in the square timber is no better than before A prominent lumberman who deals largely in square timber, and is well posted as to operations up river, said this morning he knew of but seven rafts on the banks at present. He says that without snow it is impossible to get the square timber and long round logs to the river. Most of the short logs will be put in, but unless snow comes soon the number of rafts to come down the river the coming spring will be less than ever known before.

Colonel Haupt.

Colonel Allison Haupt is the oldest conductor on the Bald Eagle Valley road, having been in the service of the company ever since the construction of the road was finished. And yet Colonel Haupt looks almost as young as he did twenty years ago, there being apparently but little change. He is very much liked by the traveling public, as well as by all who have the honor of his personal acquaintance. He is most faithful and trustworthy and is held in the highest esteem by the railroad company and by all his railroad associates.

Another Machine for Farmers.

According to reports a harvesting machine has been invented that will bind grain with straw faster and better than it can be done by hand. The patentee has arranged to bring out the machine, and it is thought it will be a big thing for farmers, as they need not hereafter be an object to the trusts and combines of the twine men, having plenty of binding material at hand on the farm.

A GRAND INNOVATION.

The W. C. T. U. Rooms to be Opened Two Nights a Week.

The rooms of the W. C. T. U. will be opened on Tuesday and Friday nights of each week, beginning on the 21st. They will be conducted on the plan of the Y. M. C. A., but for young women who desire a warm, well lighted, comfortable place to read, enjoy social meetings with each other or passing the time with games of amusement. If deemed desirable, a sewing class will be organized and free instructions given. One of the attractions will be a circulating library, and we ask all who are interested to join in a book reception to be held n the rooms on Tuesday night the 25th, Come and bring with you a good readable book or two suitable for young women. We need your help in this effort to help others. If any one reading this has a good plain book-case they have had replaced by a new one, will they not donate it to hold the books, or a picture or game of crokinole?

Checkers or other games, now no longer needed, will be most acceptable. Remember Tuesday evening, the 25th, will be the book reception, and Friday the 21st, the opening evening for young women.

Not Going to Leave.

The Express was in error as regards Mr. A C Mann and family going to Boston to permanently reside. He merely went in the interest of the American Axe Manufacturers Association to take an inventory of stock at the East Douglass axe factory. He will return in two weeks. Oh no, Mill Hall can't dispense with a good citizen like Mr. Mann.

A Complete Mill.

A large saw mill recently erected for Messrs. Cryder & Son near Washington furnace, is said to be one of the most complete mills in the country. The millwright who superintended the job was Charles Sayers, of Jacksonville, Centre county.

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses One Dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's. Peculiar in its medicinal merits, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "good name at home,"—there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is Peculiar to Itself

Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine,

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

FOR MEN ONLY!

VIGOR AND STRENGTH For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind, Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young. Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to enlarge and Strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS OF BODY. Absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Benefits in a day. Men testify from 50 States and Foreign Countries. Write them. Descriptive Book, explanation and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

If You Have

No appetite, Indigestion, Flatulence, Sick Headache, "all run down," losing flesh, you will find the remedy you need. They tone up the weak stomach and build up the flagging energies. Sufferers from mental or physical overwork will find relief from them. Nicely sugar coated.

Tutt's Pills

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

NO MORE OF THIS!

Rubber Shoes unless worn uncomfortably tight will often slip off the feet. To remedy this evil the offer a shoe with the inside of the heel lined with rubber. This clings to the shoe and prevents the Rubber from slipping off.

"COLCHESTER" RUBBER CO.

Call for the "Colchester"

"ADHESIVE COUNTERS"

and you can walk, run or jump in them.

Another Good for the Public.

Another great accommodation has been secured for our citizens by our new postmaster. Bellefonte, as the postmaster informs us, has heretofore been singularly unfortunate in the fact that our citizens could not obtain, through the mails, the latest editions of the Philadelphia morning papers, nor could they obtain any edition, early or late as early as they could the New York morning papers of the same date, although the latter came through Philadelphia on their way to Bellefonte.

Through Mr. Feidler's personal exertions a mail pouch now leaves Philadelphia at 7 a. m., which brings to Bellefonte by 4.30 p. m., not only the latest editions of the morning papers, but also all letters of late night and early morning collections at Philadelphia postoffice, which letters heretofore were never received by our citizens until the day after. For such thought as to what the people need it is worth while to have an efficient and obliging Republican postmaster, and many of our most estimable Democrats are already loud in Mr. Feidler's praise. Bellefonte moves and will move faster under good guidance.

Howard Happenings.

The grippe has not yet run its course in this place. Quite a number of our people, among them your correspondent, being afflicted therewith.

Miss Bessie, daughter of Andrew Walizer, died at the home of her parents, about one mile south of Howard, on Saturday morning. She was buried on Monday at ten o'clock, interment being made in the Howard cemetery. Rev. Thompson of the Evangelical church, officiated. The cause of death was brain fever.

The band entertainment on Saturday evening was a success in every respect. There was a full house, and the parts were all well represented. The orchestra, conducted by Prof, Poulson, was grand. The singing was all good, but special mention must be made of the song and chorus entitled, "We are Growing Old Together." The solo was sung by Prof. Wilber T. Hall, all the class joining in on the chorus. The net proceeds for the evening were $26.78.

Council Monday Night.

At Council Monday night the Chief Burgess presented a request through the borough solicitor to be allowed to appoint three extra policemen for next Thursday. This will make ten for the town, as the county commissioners have appointed five. Council gave the desired permission.

Council also authorized or instructed the Chief Burgess to in the future issue permits on orders from the local Board of Health for the removal and transportation of dead bodies, according to a recent decision of the State Board of Health.

The street committee was authorized to lay 325 feet of water pipe on Howard street. The street commissioner was also instructed to locate, wherever so requested by the proper authority, mail and letter boxes throughout the town. This is in preparation for the free delivery which Bellefonte will have on and after July 1st.

Williamsport Postmaster.

Congressman McCormick has settled the contest for the Williamsport postoffice by deciding to recommend John B. Emery for that position. The Williamsport postoffice is a nice plum and we suppose of course that Mr. McCormick knows which of the Republican aspirants did the most for his party and his (McCormick's) election. But what we want to know now is, is this the Mr. Emery, formerly of Bellefonte nail mill notoriety who busted in the windows of the Bellefonte Watchman office on the day of Blaine demonstration in that place during the Beaver campaign?—Lock Haven Democrat.

No, sir; Mr. Democrat. The Emery's cannot be one and the same; as the Mr. Emery that for a while lived in Bellefonte was named John V. Emery.

SALE REGISTER.

TUESDAY, MARCH 11, At 9 o'clock a. m., Jerry Walters will sell at his farm two miles southwest of Fillmore, all kinds of farm stock and farm implements.

Rheumatism

What is Meant by "A Permanent Cure."

Hundreds Renew Like This:

First Statement.

Liverpool, Pa., Feb. 23, 1882.

MR. J. E. BONSALL, (Clerk of Courts, Perry Co., Pa.,) certifies: "I am 48. At 15 was prostrated with Inflammatory rheumatism.

"In 1866, had another violent attack; got about again, but was never free from pain. Winter '80 and '81 could not walk.

"Morphine was prescribed to give me rest. Used St. Jacobs Oil by advice. I used it freely, and it effected a cure.

"After two years have felt no rheumatism. I am cured permanently after 16 years suffering."

Second Statement.

April 26, 1886.

MR. J. E. BONSALL writes: "Five years ago I used St. Jacobs. It effected an entire, permanent cure. No return of pain."

Third Statement.

April 21, 1888.

MR. J. E. BONSALL writes: "My health continues good. No return of rheumatism since 1881, when cured by St. Jacobs Oil. Suffered over 20 years."

IT IS PROMPTLY AND PERMANENTLY Cured by St. Jacobs Oil

BALTO. MD. THE CHAS. A. VOGELER CO.

FROM SNOW SHOE.

COMES A BREEZEY LETTER TELLING ALL ABOUT WHAT THEY ARE DOING OUT THERE.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the M. E. church.

The Moshannon correspondent of the Karthaus Times seems to take great delight in stealing a ride with Mr. Thomas Fleming, who carries the mail from the Beech Creek depot to Monshannon.

Mr. Ham Bates, of Pine Glenn, drove to Snow Shoe Friday and loaded on his wagon a brand new piano which he took to the home of his father, Hiram Bates, Pine Glenn.

Mr. George T. Ray has sold out his bakery and confectionery to Messrs. Thompson & Son, who will continue the same. The new firm commenced business Monday morning.

Messrs. Kelley brothers have purchased another mule. They are both enterprising young men and in the mining business very successful.

Lawrence Redding has a very pleasant expression on his countenance the last few days. It is a boy.

Mr. James B. Sliker, of Cato, transacted business in Snow Shoe on Monday.

The republicans held their caucus meeting Monday evening and nominated a splendid ticket.

Miss Clara Neff has returned to Snow Shoe again after spending a week visiting her parents at Roland, Pa.

R C Gilliland, senior member of the firm of Gilliland and Murray, and John Marks, who has charge of the delivery department in the same firm, each have a broad smile on their countenance. Mr. Gilliland's is a boy while Mr. Mark's is a girl.

Something remarkable — "Squire Smith's eloquence.

Joseph Thompson has built a new ice house, but he says it is all in vain as there is no ice to fill it with.

Mr. E B Lear is visiting his relatives at West Chester and Elmer Stevens, of Newberry, has charge of the B. C. depot during his absence.

Mr. Thomas Davis, of Morrisdale Mines, visited his Snow Shoe friends on Monday.

The barber mutilated John Madill's beard so badly one day last week that his best friends didn't know him, and if his voice had been changed his wife would have disowned him.

John Gill became extremely boisterous Thursday evening. So much so that himself and two young men that were with him were arrested and taken before Squire Smith upon very serious charges. Then Mr. Gill sang quite another tune. They were held in three hundred dollars bail each for their appearance at court. The two obtained bail very readily but Mr. Gill would now be occupying a cell at Fort Cooke if Mr. Uzzle had not taken pity on him and consented to go his bail.

Houserville Happenings.

The protracted meeting which has been carried on in the United Brethren church, of this place, under the control of Rev. Jackson, has not met with very great success during the three weeks of its continuance. There was but one conversion. The meeting broke up on Sunday night.

Miss Lizzie Felty and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nora Felty, were recent visitors at the home of G. S. Keller, of this place.

Mrs. Nora Honeigh, of Punxsutawney, is visiting friends in this neighborhood.

Mr. Charles Keller visited his uncles, cousins, and aunts in the vicinity of Bellefonte last week.

Mr. John Fogleman contemplates making sale in the Spring. He is going to quit farming and try ore minning. He will move to Scotia.

SHORTY.

Death of a Prominent Citizen.

On Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock Mr. George Bostley died at his residence on Bishop street of typhoid fever, superinduced by the grippe. Mr. Bostley had been sick about two weeks. He had only been a resident of Bellefonte for a few months, coming here from in the vicinity of Hepsburg, Pa., where he had a mill property valued at ten thousand dollars entirely swept away with the flood of June last, which left him penniless. He came here last fall and leased one of the Centre Iron Company's furnaces which he has been operating ever since. He was a large, robust man of about 40 years of age.

The funeral will take place to day meet at the house at 9 o'clock and after a short service the remains will be taken on the 9.32 a. m. train to Williamsport where the regular service will be held and where interment will be made.

Fatal Accident at Wayne.

G. W. Irvin, a single man, aged about 26 years, residing at Williamsport, was run over by a locomotive at Wayne on Monday and killed. He was in the employ of the P. & E. railroad, and jumped from the pilot of a freight engine for the purpose of turning a switch. He ran forward, slipped, fell and before he could recover the locomotive was upon him. His remains were taken to Lock Haven and from there conveyed to Williamsport on Day Express. The accident occured about eight o'clock.

Rules for Lent.

The instructions to be followed by Roman Catholics for the observance of Lent have just been issued by order of Archbishop Ryan.

The instructions says: "All the faithful who have completed their twenty-first year are bound to observe the fast of Lent, unless dispensed for legitimate reasons. The persons exempted from fasting are: The infirm, those under twenty-one years of age, women in pregnancy or nrusing infants, those who are obliged to do hard labor or those who are enfeebled by old age. Only one full meal a day is allowed, except on Sundays. On the days on which permission is granted to eat meat, both meat and fish are not to be used at the same meal. A collation or partial meal is allowed in the evening, It should never exceed eight ounces. By virtue of an indult of the Holy see the following special dispensations are granted: Bread, butter, cheese, fruit of all kinds, vegetables and fish are permitted at the collation. Milk and eggs are also allowed.

"It is lawful to drink in the morning some warm liquid, such as tea, coffee or chocolate, and to partake of a small portion of bread, not exceeding two ounces. The use of lard instead of butter is allowed in preparing fish, vegetables etc. The use of flesh meat will be allowed at any times on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of Ember Saturday and Holy Saturday. Persons exempted from the obligation of fasting, by age, or laborious occupation are not restricted to the use of meat, at one meal only, on those days on which its use is granted by dispensation. When the principal meal cannot be taken at midday, it is permitted to change the order, taking the collation then and the dinner in the evening.

"Besides the obligation of fasting imposed by the church, earnest prayer is desired, and to such seclusion from the amusements of the world as one's state will permit, and also to generous almsgiving.

"Holy communion must be approached. The time for receiving the Holy Eucharist extends from the first Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday inclusive."

A.—I have just discovered what it is that destroys memory most completely.

B.—Alcohol?"

" No. "

" Tobacco?"

" No. "

"Morphine?"

" No. It is doing'a man a favor.'.

Polite Beat—Can't you accommodate me with $3?

Banker—Man alive! you make me nervous.

Why do you always ask for $3, instead of asking for $1 or $2?

Polite Beat—Mr. Moneybags, if you think you understand the begging business better than I do just you beg for a while and let me be banker.

'Your address, please.'

'John J. Johnson, Philadelphia, Pa.'

'Street and number, please.'

'Oh, that isn't needed. I received a letter with my street and number on it last year, and since then they know my address at the Post-Office.

'Maria,' said Mr. Bronson at midnight, 'go in to Willie and make him stop blowing that tin horn. This is no time for that!' That's not Willie. It's the new nurse snoring.'

My son, don't advertise your griefs. If you have crooked legs do not wear striped trousers.

Miss Pert (who has fallen on the pavement): O, dear me! I believe I have sprained my ankle. Her rescuer; I shouldn't wonder. I noticed, when you fell, that it was very neatly turned.

SULPHUR BITTERS

THE GREAT

German Remedy.

TRUTHS FOR THE SICK.

For those deathly Bilious Spells depend on SULPHUR BITTERS it will cure you.

$1,000 will be paid for a case where SULPHUR BITTERS will not assist or cure. It never fails.

Do you suffer with that tired and all gone feeling; if so, use SULPHUR BITTERS; it will cure you.

Cleanse the vitiated blood when you see its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Blotches, and Sores. Rely on SULPHUR BITTERS, and health will follow.

Operatives who are closely confined in the mills and workshops; clerks, who do not procure sufficient exercise, and all who are confined in doors, should use SULPHUR BITTERS. They will not then be weak and sickly.

SULPHUR BITTERS will cure Liver Complaint. Don't be discouraged; it will cure you.

If you do not wish to suffer from Rheumatism, use a bottle of SULPHUR BITTERS; it never fails to cure.

SULPHUR BITTERS will build you up and make you strong and healthy.

Don't be without a bottle. Try it; you will not regret it.

SULPHUR BITTERS will make your blood pure, rich and strong, and your flesh hard.

Ladies in delicate health, who are all run down, should use SULPHUR BITTERS.

Try SULPHUR BITTERS to-night, and you will sleep well and feel better for it.

Do you want the best Medical Work published? Send 3 2-cent stamps to A. P. ORDWAY & Co., Boston, Mass., and receive a copy, free.

A GREAT GRIST OF JURORS.

The Names of Men Who Have Been Called to Sit in Justice's Hall and Decide Between Man and Man.

The following list of jurors is an exceedingly long one—182 names in all. They have been drawn for the first and second week in March—a special term of court—and for the fourth Monday in April and the first week in May, including grand jurors for April term. Read the list carefully and see if your name is on the roll:

FIRST MONDAY IN MARCH TRAVERSE JURORS SPECIAL TERM.

A C Musser, Marble dealer, Millheim.
H C Quigley, student, Liberty.
Jas C Smith, merchant, Millheim.
Joseph Riley, laborer, Philipsburg.
E W Ewing, merchant, Snow Shoe.
John A Callahan, laborer, Philipsburg.
John Meckly, farmer, Benner.
Wm. Kaup, miller, College
B F Edmonds, teacher, Haines.
H M Snyder, farmer, Ferguson.
C T Cheeseman, bookkeeper, Snow Shoe.
H C Holter, carpenter, Howard boro
James Dubbs, teamster, Rush
Perry Steele, mason, Spring
Wm Lytle, farmer, College
Valentine Reese, farmer, Union
Wilson T Irwin, " "
Fergus Potter, Justice of Peace, Harris.
John Dale, farmer, Benner
Frank Gowland, Supt., Rush
Henry Southard, carpenter, Philipsburg
Green Decker, farmer, Gregg
Christ Sharrar, " Taylor
J I Kunes, merchant, Liberty
James Heverly, laborer, Milesburg
Daniel Houser, farmer, Worth
Cameron Burnside, gentleman, Spring
John C Rote, Eng
Elsworth Ardery, teacher, "
J W Evans, farmer, Gregg
J C Peters, " Union
G W Minsker, laborer, Bellefonte
Philip Resides, farmer, Boggs
John Davis, Miner, Rush
John M Long, salesman, Howard boro

SECOND MONDAY IN MARCH SPECIAL TERM.

Henry Gingerick, farmer, Harris
Isaiah Copelin, laborer, Philipsburg
B F Homan, farmer, College
Samuel Harpster, farmer, Ferguson
Robt M Smith, farmer, Potter
Thos F Hull, carpenter, Haines
Geo W McGaffery, coal operator, Philipsburg
Edward Long, gardener, Boggs
Edwin Wasson, farmer, Patton
H G Royer, farmer, Miles
R H Reed, farmer, Patton
D P Shope, Boggs
G L Potter, agent, Bellefonte
G W Harter, farmer, Penn
Andrew Gregg, farmer, Potter
Cyras Brumgard, butcher, Millheim
Wm Hudson, plasterer, Philipsburg
F H Clemson, clerk, Ferguson
Wm Benner, miller, Philipsburg
Leonard Minsker, laborer, Liberty
Jas W Alexander, student, Spring
Chester Wilcox, laborer, Rush
M W Cowdrick, bricklayer, Bellefonte
Jacob Roop, farmer, Union
Chester Munson, merchant, Philipsburg
W A Harstock, farmer, Huston
D Z Kline, gentleman, Bellefonte
Wm Miller, farmer, Curtin
Henry Kline, laborer, Ferguson
Emanuel Corman, carpenter, Spring
W R Campbell, forgeman, Milesburg
R B Boop, blacksmith, Haines
J H Oliger, teacher, Spring
James S Goss, laborer, Taylor
James Fleming, laborer, Spring
Joshua Beck, carpenter, Philipsburg

APRIL TERM GRAND JURORS FOURTH MONDAY IN APRIL.

James Winkleman, laborer, Walker.
Solomon Smith, butcher, Phillipsburg.
John Morgan, gentleman, Bellefonte.
Snyder Tate, teamster, Spring.
Charles From, laborer, Harris.
John P MCormick, farmer, Ferguson.
David Bartges, farmer, Gregg.
James W Marshall, farmer, Benner.
John Reese, farmer, Worth.
John A Long, farmer, Harris.
C H Wilson, laborer, Marion.
Peter H Bush, farmer, Union.
John Duke, laborer, Rush.
Frank McCoy, iron master, Bellefonte.
William Undercoffer, laborer, Spring.
Adam Bartges, farmer, Haines.
W S Winklebeck, teacher, Haines.
James Lenker, merchant, College.
James Henderson, farmer, Benner.
John Page, farmer, Penn.
A J McClellan, laborer, Rush.
Samuel Garner, farmer, College.
William Lash, farmer, Marion.
Thomas Beightol, farmer, Walker.

APRIL TERM TRAVERSE JURY FOURTH MONDAY IN APRIL.

Thos A Shoemaker, ironmaster, Spring
Albert Owens, gentleman, "
C O Mallery, laborer, Miles.
John Miller, Jr., " Rush.
E J Walker, " Boggs.
H H Schroyer, merchant, Bellefonte.
John W Houserman, carpenter, Miles.
C T Gerbrich, miller, Bellefonte.
John Johnstonbaugh, laborer, Patton.
John S Bush, farmer, Union.
D H Deitrick, teacher, Walker.
J B Roan, farmer, Benner.
J H Lingle, machinist, Bellefonte.
Wallace Crider, farmer, Miles.
Wm. Brooks, " Boggs.
Charles McGarvey, laborer, Union.
Henry Glossner, farmer, Marion.
James Fortney, " Ferguson.
Wm. Houser, farmer, Spring.
Thos. Long, laborer, Snow Shoe.
Isaac Wrye, farmer, Half Moon twp.
Wm. Mann, laborer, Liberty
L H Musser, agent, Patton.
Elmer Vaughn, laborer, Worth.
Thos. D Adams, livery man, Philipsburg,
Chas. Bilger, farmer, Rush.
Jacob Stine, blacksmith, Walker.
Daniel Hess, gentleman, Harris.
James Ray, blacksmith, College.
John Love, laborer, Spring.
Martin Reese, baggage master, Snow Shoe.
O Millard, farmer, Snow Shoe.
J B Shope, laborer, "
J B Proudfoot, undertaker, Milesburg.
Thos. Fink, farmer, Taylor.
J F Marsteller, Supt., Snow Shoe.
Frank Grow, lumberman, Rush.
B Poulson, mfg., Howard Boro.
Thos. Smith, farmer, Liberty.
Michael Kelly, coal dealer, Snow Shoe.
R D Runkle, laborer, Gregg.
Samuel Irwin, blacksmith, Ferguson.
Wm. H Shultz, forgeman, Boggs.
J H Wagner, machinist, Bellefonte.
H H Benner, clerk, "
Thos. C Bell, bricklayer, "
Thos. Heberling, laborer, Ferguson
John D Brown, jeweler, Snow Shoe.
Edward Crawford, laborer, Potter.
J F Schenck, farmer, Howard twp.
Christ Heverly, " Curtin.
B Lauth, gentleman, Howard twp.
George Fink, farmer, Huston.
Isaiah Struble, " Walker.
J W Adams, justice, Howard twp.
J H Wagner, farmer, Haines.

FIRST MONDAY IN MAY—REGULAR TERM.

Geo Stevens, Esq, Snow Shoe
David Walters, gentleman, Walker
Miles Alexander, farmer, Huston
D M Wolf, county supt. Gregg
Howard Fetterolf, laborer, Potter
John Walters, gardener, Boggs
Thos Hockman, wagon maker, Millheim
John Bilger, Vet. Surgeon, Spring
E G Mingle, huckster. Haines
Joseph Lehman, merchant, Philipsburg
Samuel Shoop, laborer, Centre Hall
F S Lingle, farmer, Liberty
Aus Atherton, farmer, Philipsburg
Jacob R Bible, teacher, Potter
Geo R Boak, farmer, Burnside
Emanuel Cronomiller, farmer, Haines
Thomas Croft, farmer, Boggs
Daniel McGinley, carpenter, Bellefonte
E A Bower, laborer, Haines.
Jacob Yarnell, farmer, Boggs.
Harry Woodring, clerk, Worth.
Samuel Cross, laborer, Phillipsburg.
Isaac Mitchell, clerk, Bellefonte.
Geo. I Blackford, restauranteur, Bellefonte.
Hays Schenck; laborer, Howard Boro.
E E Hagerty, baker, Phillipsburg.
W H Mills, barber, Bellefonte.
C B Hess, laborer, Ferguson,
John Bing, merchant, Unionville Boro.
Jacob Glossner, laborer, Liberty.
Charles Campbell, coal operator, Philipsburg.
A P Zerby, sawer, Penn.
Z T Harsberger, coal dealer, Milesburg.
J I Wentzell, laborer, Boggs.
William Kessinger, constable, Walker.
Alfred Johnstonbaugh, farmer, Benner.

When do Women Read.

Do women read? Why, yes, of course do they not absorb the culture of the day? How is it then that they do not care for books or for such only tha come from circulating libraries? Go into a house where a woman is the householder and you seldom find a good library. Go to a sale of books and it is seldom women who are the purchasers. The interest of the sexes at the exhibition of the Barlow collection has been characteristically divided The fine chinas have drawn women. the books men. Where a bouquet of bonnets bloomed about a fine Sevres plate there was hardly the flutter of a skirt among the volumes.

To be sure the greater number of the books would appeal to specialists in history, but it is doubtful if the acquisitive instincts in women have fastened themselves very closely as yet about literary treasures. Women take in their culture in clubs and societies but, when they have heard four papers about four authors they spend their ready money on a harlequin set of after-dinner coffee cups rather than on the works of the quartet or any other writers. Perhaps they're right. It's well to do one's own thinking. But if a club or society does it for one the result must be superficial.

Not in Politics.

Mr. James Schofield desires it distinctly understood that (for himself he has nothing to say) his wife and his cow are not in politics and he wants no republican to say anything about them. We have all due respect for Mrs. Schofield and so far will heed his desire but for the cow, we rather think she is or was in politics. Do you remember the 472 quarts of milk story, Jimmy?

A Special Guard.

The following named persons were on Friday appointed by the county commissioners as a special guard to officiate on the day of the execution of W. Seely Hopkins; Capt. Amos Mullen, Constable H. H. Montgomery, Newton Steele, J. H. Oliger and John Feaster. Their duty will be to keep order in general but especially to keep the crowd from the jail.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A LESSON TO LOVERS.

PUNISHED FOR PERJURY IN SWEARING TO WHAT HIS SWEETHEART TOLD HIM.

William P. Talbott, of Quincy, has been sentenced to one year in the penitentiary, and his case is a terrible example to the young men who swear to what their sweethearts tell them. Talbott fell in love with a young woman in Quincy, and asked her to marry him. She was willing, and neither of the lovers thought worth while to ask her mother, They went to the county clerk to secure a marriage license.

The girl said she was eighteen, and of course Talbott swore to that as a fact. They were married, and had three happy days of honeymoon before his mother-in-law learned of her new dignity. She did not like it, and she swore out a warrant for the arrest of the young man because the girl was only sixteen years old, and he must have perjured himself to secure a license. When he was arrested the young wife said he was not to blame. She had told him she was eighteen, and what lover would doubt the word of the woman about to become his wife? He may change his mind afterward, but at that moment he would swear that the moon was made of green cheese if she but said so.

The law in this state does not permit a wife to testify in behalf of her husband, nor does it permit the husband to put in evidence anything that his wife may have said to him. Therefore, Mr. Talbott was compelled to sacrifice himself. It was proven that the girl was not 18, and therefore Mr. Talbott had perjured himself in making oath that she was of legal age. Had the marriage ceremony not been performed the woman might have been able to demonstrate her love and also the man's by taking the witness stand to relieve him of the burden of responsibility.

But she is his wife and must sit quiet in the court room and see him convicted, for no other crime than that of believing implicitly what she told him.

FREE EDUCATIONS FOR GIRES.

How Girls can get a College Education Without Cost.

A most praisworthy movement is about to be set on foot by The Ladies' Home Jaurnal of Philadelphia. It proposes to give to any young girl of 16 years or over who will send to it, between now and January 1st, 1891, the largest number of yearly subscribers to the JOURNAL, a complete education at Vassar College or any other American college she may select. The education offered includes every branch of study, with every expense paid, the JOURNAL agreeing to educate the girl irrespective of the time required or the expense involved. To this is also pinned a second offer which guarantees to any girl of 16 or over who will secure 1000 yearly subscribers before January 1st, a full term of one year at Vassar or any other preferred college, with all expenses paid, thus making it possible for any number of young girls to receive free educations at the best colleges. Any girl can enter into the competition, and such can be thoroughly posted by simply writing to The Ladies Home Journal at 435 Arch Street, Philadelphia. The management says that it has been led to its generous offers by the fact that there are thousands of parents throughout the country anxious to educate their daughters, and yet who cannot afford the expense This step helps to a comparatively easy solution of the problem, since it throws a free education into the hands of any bright and active girl, The JOURNAL'S movement is one that certainly cannot be too highly commended and praised.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

He May Be in Centre County.

A neatly dressed man of about 35 years of age come to Renovo about two weeks ago and has been "doing the lumber camps" in the insurance business. He claims to represent the Commonwealth Beneficial Associaton of Philadelpha, but they have requested parties in town to arrest him, as he is not authorized to do business for them. He is a man about 5½ feet tall, weighing 180 pounds, with small dark mustache, two scars on the right side of his face and blind in one eye, wears a dark suit with bright pearl buttons. Any person who is able to identify him is authorized to arrest the man at once and dispatch to the above named company who will pay all expense. All papers are requested to copy this article for the benefit of people who are liable to be taken in by the rascal.

—Mrs. Nancy Potter, widow of Robret Potter, who lives with her son Fergus, at Linden Hall, is now 93 years of age and as hale and hearty as many a woman of half that number of years. She rises with the other members of the family and breakfasts before 6 o'clock, as a general rule.

Literary Note.

Edward Bellamy, the author of 'Looking Backward,' will contribute to the March number of the North American Review a reply to General Francis A Walker's criticism of his theories in the February Atlantic.

Miscellaneous.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhœa, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion, Without injurious medication.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

HINDERCORNS.
The only sure Cure for Corns. Stops all pain. Ensures comfort to the feet. 15c. at Druggists. HISCOX & Co., N.Y.

ARE YOU CONSUMPTIVE
Have you Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, Indigestion? Use PARKER'S GINGER TONIC. It has cured the worst cases and is the best remedy for all ills arising from defective nutrition. Take in time. 50c. and $1.00.

RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER
CURES ALL DISEASES.

The claim to cure all diseases, may at first glance seem very absurd; but after reading our pamphlet giving a history of the Microbe Killer, explaining the germ theory of disease, and reading our testimonials, which prove conclusively there is no disease it will not cure, the truth of our assertion becomes clear. No person suffering from any blood, chronic or contagious disease should let a day pass without getting and reading this interesting book, which will be given away or mailed free. The gentlemen connected with this company are well-known business men of this city. Agents wanted everywhere. Address, 26 T

The WM. RADAM MICROBE KILLER CO., 54 Sixth Avenue, NEW YORK CITY.

PATENTS
Caveats, and Trade-Marks obtained, and all Patent business conducted for MODERATE FEES.
OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those remote from Washington.
Send model, drawing or photo., with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due till patent is secured.
A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with names of actual clients in your State, county, or town, sent free. Address,
C. A. SNOW & CO.
OPP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON

OUR LITTLE ONES and the NURSERY
36 BROMFIELD ST., Boston, Mass.
The most handsome and best magazine for children ever published. $1.50 a year; single copies, 15 cts. Sent on trial three months for 25c. A sample copy and Premium List sent to any address on receipt of a two-cent stamp.

HUMPHREYS'
DR. HUMPHREYS' SPECIFICS are scientifically and carefully prepared prescriptions; used for many years in private practice with success, and for over thirty years used by the people. Every single Specific is a special cure for the disease named.
These Specifics cure without drugging, purging or reducing the system, and are in fact and deed the sovereign remedies of the World.

LIST OF PRINCIPAL NOS.	CURES.	PRICES.
1	Fevers, Congestion, Inflammation...	.25
2	Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic...	.25
3	Crying Colic, or Teething of Infants	.25
4	Diarrhea, of Children or Adults....	.25
5	Dysentery, Griping, Bilious Colic...	.25
6	Cholera Morbus, Vomiting.....	.25
7	Coughs, Cold, Bronchitis.....	.25
8	Neuralgia, Toothache, Faceache....	.25
9	Headaches, Sick Headache, Vertigo	.25
10	Dyspepsia, Bilious Stomach.....	.25
11	Suppressed or Painful Periods.	.25
12	Whites, too Profuse Periods.....	.25
13	Croup, Cough, Difficult Breathing....	.25
14	Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Eruptions.	.25
15	Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains....	.25
16	Fever and Ague, Chills, Malaria....	.50
17	Piles, Blind or Bleeding.....	.50
19	Catarrh, Influenza, Cold in the Head	.50
20	Whooping Cough, Violent Coughs.	.50
24	General Debility, Physical Weakness	.50
27	Kidney Disease.....	.50
28	Nervous Debility.....	1.00
30	Urinary Weakness, Wetting Bed.	.50
32	Diseases of the Heart, Palpitation	1.00

Sold by Druggists, or sent postpaid on receipt of price. Dr. HUMPHREYS' MANUAL (144 pages) richly bound in cloth and gold, mailed free. Humphreys' Medicine Co. 109 Fulton St. N.Y.

SPECIFICS.

EPPS'S COCOA
BREAKFAST
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by Grocers, labelled thus:
JAS EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England

Drunkenness
Or the Liquor Habit, Positively Cured
BY ADMINISTERING DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.
It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea, or in articles of food, without the knowledge of the person taking it; it is absolutely harmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. IT NEVER FAILS. We GUARANTEE a complete cure in every instance. 48 page book FREE. Address in confidence,
GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race St., Cincinnati, O.

SALESMEN WANTED!
Permanent Positions Guaranteed. With Salary and Expenses Paid Great advantages to beginners. Fast-Selling Specialties. No experience needed with us. OUTFIT SENT FREE. Write quick and get choice of territory, stating age. (Name this Paper)
HOOKER NURSERIES, Rochester, N. Y.
21 43 4t

Stop that CHRONIC COUGH NOW!
For if you do not it may become consumptive. For Consumption, Scrofula, General Debility and Wasting Diseases, there is nothing like
SCOTT'S EMULSION
Of Pure Cod Liver Oil and HYPOPHOSPHITES Of Lime and Soda.
It is almost as palatable as milk. Far better than other so-called Emulsions. A wonderful flesh producer.
Scott's Emulsion
There are poor imitations. Get the genuine.

RUPTURE
Thousands have been permanently cured by—
DR. J. B. MAYER 831 ARCH ST
PHILADELPHIA, PA. Ease at once, no operation or loss of time from business. Cases pronounced incurable by others wanted. Send for Circular.
CURE GUARANTEED. Advice Free. Office Hours 9 to 3.

One of the BEST Telescopes in the world. FREE Our facilities are unequaled, and to introduce our superior goods we will send FREE to ONE PERSON in each locality as above. Only those who write to us at once can make sure of the chance. All you have to do is return is to show our goods to those who call—your neighbors and those around you. The beginning of this advertisement shows the small end of the telescope. The following cut gives the appearance of it reduced to about the fiftieth part of its bulk. It is a grand, double size telescope, as large as is easy to carry. We will also show you how you can make from $3 to $10 a day at least, from the start, without experience. Better write at once. We pay all express charges. Address, H. HALLETT & CO., Box 980, PORTLAND, MAINE.

LEARN SHORTHAND AND TYPE WRITING AT PALMER'S COLLEGE,
1006 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.
POSITION SURE. Good Compensation. LESSONS BY MAIL OR AT COLLEGE. REMINGTON STANDARD TYPEWRITER.
Catalogue FREE.

AGENTS WANTED! TO SELL AN ENTIRELY NEW BOOK!
The most wonderful collection of practical, real value and every-day use for the people ever published on the globe. A marvel of money-saving and money-earning for every one owning it. Thousands of beautiful, helpful engravings, showing just how to do everything. No competition; nothing like it in the universe. When you select that which is of true value, sales are sure. All sincerely desiring paying employment and looking for something thoroughly first class at an extraordinarily low price should write for description and terms on the most remarkable achievement in book-making since the world began.
SCAMMELL & CO., Box 5003, ST. LOUIS or PHILADELPHIA.
21 31 6m

? ? ? CATARRH
Have You Tried CREAM BALM THE BEST Remedy?

NOT A LIQUID or SNUFF. HAY-FEVER
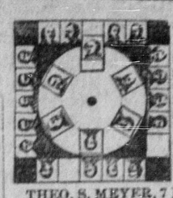
A particle is applied into each nostril and is agreeable. Price 50 cents at all Druggists; by mail, registered, 60 cents.
ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren St., New York

Star Spring Water.
Saratoga Star Spring Water for sale in bottles and by the glass by all Druggists.



Growth of a Century.
This cut is a fac simile of an amusing game and puzzle. It is historically instructive and politically interesting. Sent to any address on receipt of 20 cents. Any one forming a club of five will receive one gratis. AGENTS WANTED. Large profits. Address
THEO. S. MEYER, 7 Broadway, New York City.

Sealskin Garments.
BUY OF THE MANUFACTUERER.
ALL THE NEWEST STYLES.
A choice and extensive assortment in style, quality and prices, that cannot be beaten by any.
MUFFS, BOAS, CAPES, STOLES, SCARFS, CAPS, GLOVES, GAUNTLETS, RUGS, ROBES AND FUR TRIMMINGS.
Henry Siede, Furrier,
14 West 14th St. 5th Ave. & 45th St.
NEW YORK.
Full line of Gent's Furs and Coats
Established 40 Years. Send for Catalogue.

SALESMEN WANTED to canvas for the sale of Nursery Stock. Steady employment guaranteed. SALARY AND EXPENSES PAID. Apply at once, stating age. (Refer to this paper.)
Chase Brothers Co. Rochester, N. Y.
repj & m,

"SMADELAND"
The most Extensive Pure Bred
LIVE STOCK
Establishment in the World,

New importations constantly arriving; unequalled collections; superior quality, choicest breeding; opportunity of comparing different breeds.
Breeders and Importers of Clydesdales, Percherons, French Drafts, English Shires, Belgian Drafts, Suffolks, French Coachers, Cleveland Bays, Hackneys, Standard Breeded Trotters, Carriage Horses, Saddle Horses, Welsh Ponies, Iceland Ponies, Shetland Ponies, Holstein-Friesian Cattle, Devon Cattle,
Also, Dealers in Real Estate.
No other establishment in the World offers such Advantages to the Purchaser.
Prices Low. Terms easy. Visitors welcome. Correspondence Solicited. Circulars free.
POWELL BROTHERS, Springboro, Crawford Co., Pa.
Please mention the Republican when writing. 21-52-3m

A NORTHERN FAMILY DOWN SOUTH
Has charge of the Pine Bluff Cottage where those who wish to escape the cold Northern Winters can get board at Moderate Prices.
Amid the Pines.
HEALTHIEST SPOT IN AMERICA
Address, COTTAGE RESORT, Pine Bluff, Moore Co., N. C.

FOR MEN ONLY!
A POSITIVE CURE For LOST or FAILING MANHOOD; General and NERVOUS DEBILITY; Weakness of Body and Mind: Effects of Errors or Excesses in Old or Young; Robust, Noble MANHOOD fully Restored. How to Enlarge and Strengthen WEAK, UNDEVELOPED ORGANS & PARTS of BODY, absolutely unfailing HOME TREATMENT—Results in a day. You can write them. Book, full explanation, and proofs mailed (sealed) free. Address ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

RUPTURE
Thousands have been permanently cured by—
DR. J. B. MAYER 831 ARCH ST
PHILADELPHIA, PA. Ease at once, no operation or loss of time from business. Cases pronounced incurable by others wanted. Send for Circular.
CURE GUARANTEED. Advice Free. Office Hours 9 to 3.

SHOPPING IN PHILADELPHIA
Orders promptly filled by an Experienced Buyer without extra charge except for postage or express. Send for circular.
MISS A. L. BOBBINS, 626 N. 16th St. Philada. 2—49 8 times.

DEAFNESS & HEAD NOISES CURED BY Peck's INVISIBLE TUBULAR EAR CUSHIONS. Whispers heard. Comfortable. Successful when all Remedies fail. Sold by F. HISCOX, only, 853 B'dway, New York. Write for book of proofs FREE.

FARMS BEST Soil, Climate and Location in the South. J F MANCAA, Claremont, Va.
21 45 4t

MASON & HAMLIN Organ and Piano Co.
BOSTON, NEW YORK, CHICAGO.
NEW MODEL ORGAN, STYLE 2244. Contains a five octave, Ni... Stop Action, furnished in a li... and handsome case of solid b... walnut. Price $99 cash; sold on the Easy Hire System $12.37 per quarter, for ten qu... ters, when organ becomes pro... erty of person hiring.
MASON & HAMLIN PIANOS. The Mason & Hamlin "Stri... er," invented and patented b... Mason & Hamlin in 1882, is use... in the Mason & Hamlin Pian... exclusively. Remarkable re... finement of tone and phenomen... capacity to stand in tune cha... acterize these instruments.
POPULAR STYLES ORGANS AT $2...
$32.50, $60, $78, $96, AND UP.

ASTHMA CAN BE CURED. A trial bottle sent Free t... anyone afflicted. DR. TAFT BRO., Rochester, N. Y.
21 45 4t

BONE MEAL FOR POULTRY Crushed Oyster She... Flint and Beef Scraps Send for new price list. YORK CHEMICAL WORKS, YORK, ...

A SPECIALIST physician since 1849 in the... eases and weaknesses of men will mail a b... free, sealed, giving the remedies which c... abandoned and hopeless sufferers privately... home. Address Specialist, room A, 54 Rende... corner Broadway, New York. 21—49 1...

SALESMEN WANTED AT ONC... A fe... good men to sell our goods... sample to the wholesale a... retail trade. We are the largest manufacturers... our line in the world. Liberal salary paid. P... manent position. Money advanced for wages,... vertising, etc. For full terms address, Centenn... Mfg. Co., Chicago, Ill, or Cincinnati, O

COAL OIL.—James Solt wants it d... tinctly understood that the extra go... quality of oil he sells is for himself a... not for anybody else, as has been r... ported. tf.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS

—Trains now run on good time. The rush of travel is not so great.

—Dr. W. W. McCoy, of Renovo, was in Bellefonte last week attending the funeral of Mrs. Weaver.

—The election of county superintendents of public schools will occur on the 6th day of May next.

—There is more real genuine wickedness in the world in one day than a person could dream of in a lifetime.

—Some belated Knights Templar returned on Friday from attending the funeral of Dr. Loraine in Philipsburg on Thursday.

—From accumulating evidence it appears that the Weaver tragedy was not so much in "self defense" as some people would like to make it appear it was.

—Dr. Allison, of Spring Mills, who was married about three weeks ago, is seriously ill at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. James Runkle, near Centre Hall.

—According to a record of the weather kept by William A. Keller, of Lock Haven, it rained one hundred and eighty-six days during the year 1889, or about every other day during the year.

—J. M. Runkle, of Spring Mills, has been elected as presentation orator and S. H. Ditzel, of Tussayville, as prophet of their class for the next commencement of Franklin and Marshall college, at Lancaster.

—We acknowledge receipt, from Capt. Austin Curtin, of the full reports of the G. A. R. for the past year as well as the address of the Department Commander as delivered at the encampment at Shamokin, Pa.

—Thieves have been industriously at work in the small towns lying along the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad. The outlook is that tramps will be as numerous this season as were the locusts of scriptural times.

—At the G. A. R. encampment at Shamokin, on Wednesday, Mr. G. B. Brandon, of the Brokerhoff House, this place, was elected a delegate to the national encampment to be held in Boston the coming summer.

—When a county newspaper makes the rapid stride of an increase of two quires of paper in one week, that is progress. Such is what we did last week.—Tyrone Times. Humph! that's nothing. We run out over four extra quire and it was one of our dull weeks, too.

—Almost every paper a person picks up now-a-days contains a confession of Alfred Andrews, (an alleged one), and, strange as it may seem no two are alike. When the real bonafide statement is made public it will doubtless prove interesting reading.

—Mr. Will Shaw, aged 34, a brakeman on the Beech Creek railroad, was killed on Thursday while assisting in the weighing of his train at Beech Creek scales. Mr. S. was a resident of Porter township and was much thought of and respected by all who knew him.

—Rev. S. E. Furst, of New Berlin, Centre county, will preach in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening, February 16th.—Raftsman's Journal. You are way off; New Berlin is not in Centre, but in Union county. Mr. Furst at one time preached in Bellefonte but not now brother, not now.

—The Tyrone Daily Herald says: "Frank Metcalf, formerly of this place but now of Jeannette was united in marriage on Thursday at Bellefonte, by Rev. W. A. Houck, to Miss Jennie Walker, of that place. The bride and groom spent Thursday night at the residence of the groom's parents in Tyrone, and on Friday morning departed for their new home in Jeannette".

—The fair and festival to be held by the United Brethren congregation on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 20th, 21st and 22d, will be held in the vacant store room next to the post office. It will be well worth your while to attend the same as you will be sure to see lots of pretty things there.

—Following are the names of the delegation of Constans Commandery that went to Philipsburg on the early morning train to attend the funeral of Dr. Loraine; W I Fleming, Cyrus Goss, Geo. B Johnston, L T Munson, I M Gordon, H Y Stitzer, F P Blair, J C Harper, W F Reynolds, S M Buck, C P Hewes, P W Gilmore, Robert Hepburn, D G Stuart and Dr. Thomas Tobin, of Stormstown.

—We notice, with much pleasure, a great accommodation to the public that our new postmaster has introduced. The window at which postage stamps can be obtained, and which formerly was kept closed while the mails were being assorted, is now kept open at all hours. Persons need not now wait an hour to obtain a stamp but can obtain them at once and go about other business. For the public and ourselves, we thank you Mr. new postmaster.

—Dr. J. O. Loraine, who died in Zellwood, Florida, on Friday night of February 7th, was buried in Philipsburg at 2 o'clock Thursday p. m. It was the request of Dr. Loraine that Constans Commandery, Knights Templar, of this place, would conduct the funeral, and according to his request a delegation of that order departed from Bellefonte on the morning train for Philipsburg. They will be assisted by members of the order from the neighboring towns.

THE POE MILLS AFFAIR.

Mr. Klinefelter Did Not Attempt to Shoot Freed And there Was No Woman in the Case.

While it is only too true that Centre county is overrun with theives and murderers it is unjust to the county, but far more so to innocent parties who may be dragged into an unpleasant affray and the circumstances so distorted as to make them appear in a very unfavorable light and especially, when there is no truth in the story.

We now refer to the affair at Poe Mills, that occurred recently, in which it was stated that a man named Klinefelter had shot twice at a man named Freed because of the latter's intimate acquaintance with the former's wife. Such was not the case at all and the truth is vastly different, for which we are very glad. The facts in the case are about as follows: Sherd Freed aged about 17 the telegraph operator at Poe Mills, had gone to the boarding house kept by Albert L Klinefelter, who has been shipping clerk for the Shamokin Lumber Company for the past four years. Freed was intoxicated andhad a bottle of whisky with him. He met a man named Raymond on the road in front of Klinefelter's house and the two exchanged drinks and then had some little altercation about something.

Mr. Klinefelter warned the men to keep their tempers and not to drink so much, after which he went into the parlor and the two men went into the diningroom. It was not many minutes until a disturbance was heard in the diningroom and Mr. Klinefelter crossed the hall to see what was wrong. As he entered the room he heard a revolver snap twice. The revolver was in the hand of Freed. It was immediately taken from him and the cause of the affair inquired into.

After going into the diningroom the quarrel between Freed and Raymond was resumed and soon became hot. Raymond struck Freed when the latter drew a revolver and snapped it twice but it was pointed down towards the floor both times. Upon examination afterwards it was found that there were no cartridges in the revolver neither was there any cylinder pin, so that there was no ways near a murder committed.

After the affair, however, Freed skipped and has not been seen since. It is due to Mr. and Mrs. Klinefelter to say that they were in no way whatever connected with this unpleasant affair—only the former as a peacemaker. And furthermore, that the character and reputation of the two are entirely above reproach in every particular.

"Daily News" Bubbles.

If girls would have roses on their cheeks they must do as the roses do—go to sleep with the lillies and get up with the morning-glories.

A gentleman in Virginia has had a standing bet for fifteen years that it would rain the first Saturday of every August. He has won his bet every year but one. Another man has bet it would rain on the 25th of July and it has done so for the past sixteen years.

If General Hastings could share the campaign for election with his principal opponent for the nomination, Mr. Delamater, his election would be assured, as the masses are undoubtedly for him; but unfortunately, the general has not yet become thoroughly conversant with the new mode of slipping in logs on crude petroleum.

The recent explosion of the learned Dr. Formad's evidence in the Leconey murder trial in Philadelphia, in which he positively asserted that certain clothing had been washed, while the defendants proved by a half dozen witnesses that such was not the case, renders expert evidence rather shaky ground for a prisoner to stand on.

While we have heard with pleasure the assurance that by next season Bellefonte will have an opera house of unquestionable style, capacity and furnishings, it would be more convincing and doubly consoling to see bricks and stone piled skyward at the proposed site of the projected building.

Attempted Suicide.

A young girl by the name of Wilson, who has not a very good reputation, attempted to commit suicide on Thursday. On Wednesday evening she went to a drug store and purchased some poison. She went to her home on Half Moon hill, but it was discovered that she had the poison and it was taken from her Next morning she secured a raisor with the intention of killing herself with it but that, too, was taken from her. She then entirely disrobed herself and going to the cellar lay down on the cold ground and refused to get up. The authorities were then notified and the girl was taken in charge. A hearing was given her and she was then sent to jail. It is very evident that the girl is not only bad but somewhat 'out of her head' also.

Knights of the Golden Eagle.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—This young and progressive Order is daily gaining in popularity, and is destined in a few years to rank with the foremost.

The annual report of Grand Master of Records, J. D. Barnes, of Pennsylvania, for the year ending December 31, 1889, contains many interesting facts. (Last report was received February 11.)

The aggregate number of initiations, admissions by card, dismissal certificates and reinstatements was 7231; an average of 21 per Castle.

The amount paid for relief of Sir Knights and widowed families, burial of the dead and donations, was $95,739.73. The number of brothers receiving weekly benefits was 3,705, and 93 widowed families received relief.

MANNS' AXE WORKS.

They Have Consolidated With the American Axe and Edge Tool Company.

After a short temporary delay the Mann's Axe Works are now again in operation. They were the last works on the list to consolidate with the American Axe and Edge Tool Company, which has but recently been incorporated, with the main office in Pittsburg. The consolidation embraces about fifteen of the most prominent factories in the eastern states. Mr. J. F. Mann tells us it will be much better than the old way of going it alone and competition to contend with, while it will be beneficial to the laborer as well as the employer. In regard to the new company we copy from a Lewistown paper the following:

At a meeting of Manufacturers in Pittsburg Wednesday the American Axe and Tool company was formed. The new organization comprises nearly all the ax and edge tool companies in the country. It purchased outright the plants and will operate them under the management of their former owners. The capital stock of the new concern is $4,000,000. The company will have its main office in Pittsburg and will employ 10,000 men. The object of the combination, according to the officers, is not to advance prices but to economize production by being enabled to purchase raw material cheaper. Among the houses represented are Wm. Mann, Jr., & Co., of this place; R Mann & Sons and T R Mann & Co., Mill Hall, Pa.; J F Mann & Co., Bellefonte, Pa.; Francis Ax company, Buffalo, N. Y. Hubbard & Co., Pittsbug; Douglass Ax works, Douglass, Mass.; Powell Tool company, Cleveland, O.; Carpenter & Co., Jamestown, N. Y.; Nashua tool company. Nashua, N. H.; Rhomer Brothers, New York; Knickerbocker & Co., Ralston, N. Y.; Johnsonville Ax company, Troy N. Y., and several other manufactories, James H Mann of this place, is treasurer; C W Hubbard, Pittsburg, president; W T Norton, Cleveland, O., secretary; George T Lance, Troy, N. Y., first vice president; H F Bixby, Nashua, N. H., second vice president; G R Mann, Mill Hall, Pa., general manager.

A New Method of Stealing Chickens.

In Waterford, Conn., chicken thieves have it upon a new method of depleating poultry yards with much success. J. H. Palmer, of Palmer, of Graintsville, is the heaviest loser, and to him the discovery of the scheme is due. When he entered his poultry yard last week he found one of his chickens apparently suffocating. Closer examination revealed to him about a dozen yards of fish line trailing from the chicken's beak. Then it dawned upon Mr. Palmer that some one had been fishing for chickens on his premises. The thieves' method was to bait a fish line with a worm, drop it conveniently near the poultry, and when the worm was swallowed it was an easy matter to capture the chicken without difficulty. As the farmers allow their fowls to roam freely about their premises and into adjacent fields the thieves do not lack opportunity to reap a harvest. Mr. Palmer's discovery, however, may cause the farmers to be more careful in the future.

Evergreen Nurseries.

Of Evergreen, Wis., claims to be the largest nursery of the class in America. It now contains several millions of small Evergreens, comprising some fifty varieties and about the same number of Ornamental Trees and Flowering Shrubs. These nurseries now serve about three thousand customers annually, whose orders range all the way from one dollar to one thousand dollars or more each. These Nurseries are making a specialty of plants for Evergreen Hedges, and have several millions ready for sale, of three or four of the most popular varieties.

The prices on Tree Seedlings are much below any others we have seen. It will pay any person who is thinking of planting an Evergreen Hedge or any other ornamental trees or shrubs, to send a postal card to these nurseries asking for their Catalogue, —On Friday night there was a young man went, at the hour of midnight, to call on his best girl who lives on Thomas street. By some prearranged signal he succeeded in awakening the object of his affections and gained an entrance into the house, only to be unceremoniously dismissed a few minutes later by the man of the house, on the score that the hour was unseasonable and would not be tolerated in that home. Right was he. And now, young man, have common sense enough hereafter and choose a respectable hour for your visits.

District Conference.

The Altoona district conference of the M. E. church, met in its fourth session on the morning of the 12th inst., in the Methodist Episcopal church, Clearfield. The time was chiefly occupied in hearing reports. The Presiding Elder opened for discussion the question. "The Pastor's Relation to the Material. Moral and Social Interests of the Community.' An interesting discussion followed. Rev. J H Bedford read an essay on "Does the Circuit Work in this District Receive the Attention it Deserves?"

A resolution was adopted requesting the bishop presiding at the next session of our Annual Conference to 'so adjust the work of the Conference as to make at least one more Presiding Elder's District,' The licenses to preach of Revs. Thomas Stronach, W H Clossen, A L Miller and W W Cadie, were renewed.

At the afternoon session the question "Our Young People; Their Power for Good in the Church and How to Develop It,' was introduced by Rev. E H Witman, who read an excellent essay on the subject. A series of resolutions, looking toward the publication of a religious newspaper by the Annual Conference were adopted, and a committee consisting of Revs. G D Pennepacker, George Leidy and Wm. Brill, and D W McCurdy, Esq., and F D Beyer, were elected to confer with the committee of the annual conference on conference paper, and to bring the matter before that body at its next session.

Rev. A R Lambert read a good essay on "Our Young People; Should the Church Provide Entertainment for Them?" The various committees on examination reported.

The evening session was well attended by the citizens of Clearfield, but the members of the conference from a distance had stamped for the afternoon train and there was a noticeble thinning out when the hour for opening had arrived. The subject of "Revivals" was was discussed in several of its aspects.

At every session Rev. R H Colburn enlivened the exercises by the rendition of some excellent solos, the choruses being sung by an improvised choir, which ably assisted him, and by the entire audience betimes.

The committee on miscellaneous matters reported, and the report was adopted as read. One item of the report was as follows: "In view of the difficulties that seem to be in the way of securing a sufficiently large attendance of members of the District Conference; therefore be it Resolved, That the Presiding Elder be requested to present the Quarterly Conferences the question of discontinuing said District Conference, and that the next session of the District Conference be notified that the question of discontinuance will be submitted to it for final action, in accordance with the provisions of the discipline.

The Conference then adjourned to meet in Tyrone in October.

The Curtin M. E. Church.

The church at Curtin appointment, Howard charge, Altoona District, was re-opened on January 26, by Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D. The repairs on the church consisted of a vestibule and tower, and painting outside, papering and painting inside, a new pulpit and chandelier, and a window in memory of Philip Antis, the founder of Methodism in Bald Eagle Valley. The cost of these repairs was $740, of which $350 was to be raised on re-opening. On the morning of the 26th, Dr. Gray preached a sermon of much power, after which he asked for $350 and when the congregation was dismissed $200 had been pledged. In the evening before preaching the finances were again presented to the congregation and in a few minutes $165 was secured, making a total for the day of $365. Then the Doctor again preached with wonderful power. The congregation was intensely interested and powerfully wrought upon. We are looking for grand results as the fruit of these discourses. The Doctor won the hearts of the people. Geo. E King, Pastor.—From the Conference News

THE COUNTY FAIR.

This is an affecting and vivid story of domestic joy and sorrow, of home life and rural scenes. It is founded on the popular play of the same name, in which Nell Burgess, who is also the author of the story, has achieved the dramatic success of the season.

The story is a faithful reproduction of the drama in the form of an extremely captivating romance, with the same unique characters, the same graphic scenes, but with the narrative more artistically rounded and completed than was possible in the brief limits of a dramatic representation. This touching story effectively demonstrates that it is possible to produce a novel which is as once wholesome and interesting in every part, without the introduction of an impure thought or suggestion.

Street & Smith, 31 Rose street, New York, are the publishers, and the story, the price of which is 25 cents, is in No. 33 of "The Select Series."

Three Score and Ten.

Daniel Garman, proprietor of the Garman House at Bellefonte, one of the finest and best-kept hotels in the State, celebrated his 70th birthday on Wednesday night. Mr. Garman is extensively known in this and Lycoming counties and is a very clever and hospitable gentlemen. We hope his years may be long in the land.—Lock Haven Democrat.

MORE DEVELOPMENTS.

Further Facts Recently Obtained About the Weaver Murder.

Fietta Weaver, accused of the murder of her father-in-law, Andrew Weaver, told District Attorney Meyer, that the knife with which the old man Weaver was stabbed could be found at a certain place in the woods near the house. The District Attorney following the directions has succeeded in finding it. It is a double edged dirk, or the kind used for stabbing. Both edges were sharp.

Young Andrew Weaver says that Fietta, his wife, upon several occasions had rushed towards the old gentleman with a knife in her hand threatening to kill him. That she had a violent temper, and had frequent quarrels with the old man.

A little daughter of Mr. Weaver, Jr., aged about three years, has related that her mother, Fietta, had stabbed grandpa, she saw it, and that he fell down aside the porch.

Andrew Auman, who is also in jail, charged as an accomplice, stood on the bridge that crosses the run, a short distance from the house, when the fight was going on and it is not thought that he had any hand in the fight that morning, but witnessed the affair, it would seem, from the bridge where he stood

We are informed that Andrews says a the proper time he will tell that he knows.

There are doubts of the sanity oft Fietta, and the trial may bring out points to show this. Her temper was more that of a mad one, at periods, than of an entirely rational being, and she was often heard to say she would kill the old man.—Centre Reporter

—An exchange remarks: One third of the fools of the country think they can beat the lawyer in expounding law, one half think they can beat the doctor healing the sick, two thirds of them think they can beat the minister preaching the Gospel, and all of them know they can beat the editor in running a newspaper.

—Mr. Harry Shuey, of Lemont, aged about 23 years, died on Wednesday morning of diabetes. The funeral took place to-day at one o'clock p. m. Mr. Shuey was married at one o'clock in the afternoon of February 14th, 1889, so that his funeral occurred just one year after to the very day and hour. His death so soon after marriage is a sorrowful blow to his young wife, who was formerly a Miss Gardner, daughter of Daniel Gardner, several years deceased.

—A brilliant party was assembled in the parlor of the Garman House on Wednesday night. It was the occasion of the celebration of the 70th birthday of Mr. Daniel Garman. and his daughter-in-law, Miss. Corny Garman, had invited the guests and gave the party in honor of this momentous event. About twenty friends were present and the occasion was one of supreme enjoyment to all, May Mr. Garman, who is one of the representative citizens of Bellefonte, live to witness another score of such pleasant anniversaries —A Lock Haven bridegroom woke up suddenly one night, not long since, and in the dim light of the honeymoonshine that permeated the room, he saw his bride's feet sticking up above the low-footboard of the bed. He thought it was a burglar in disguise, and promptly threw the water pitcher at it, water and all. The bride now sleeps with rubber boots on and walks with a limp. This just shows what mistakes a man may make when he marries a pair of Lock Haven feet with a girl tackled onto them.

WHICH WILL IT BE?

Which is the fairest, a rose or a lily?
Which is the sweetest, a peach or a pear?
Merry's coquetish, and charming is Milly;
Dora is gentle and fair. [her.
Sweet as a flower was her face when I kissed
(Love is the romance and glory of life,)
Milly, my playmate, I love "like a sister,"
But Dora I choose for my wife.

That is right, young man, marry the girl you love, by all means, if she will have you. Should her health become delicate and her beauty fade after marriage, remember that this is usually due to functional disturbances, weaknesses, irregularities, or painful disorders peculiar to her sex, in the cure of which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded. See the printed certificate of guarantee on bottle-wrapper.

For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic, or strength-giver.

Copyright, 1888, by WORLD'S DIS. MED. ASS'N.

Dr. PIERCE'S PELLETS

regulate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. They are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. One a Dose. Sold by druggists. 25 cents a vial.

Only Temperance Bitters Known.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE · FREE FROM · ALCOHOL
PURELY · DR. WALKER'S · CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS

GRANDEST · MODERN · DISCOVERY
Triumph of Pharmacy
The only true practical
ELIXIR OF LIFE AND HEALTH.

is one that promotes digestion, improves the appetite, cleanses the liver, purifies the blood, and stimulates brain and nerves without injurious reaction, and one that may be taken alike by adult or infant. Profane compounds, made of vile rum or bad whiskey, sweetened and flavored, under the titles of bitters, tonics, &c, produce effects far worse than the disease for which they are taken.

Vinegar Bitters is a pure tonic, a nervine without being narcotic, a purifier without poison, a liver tonic without purging, and above all, a life-giving stimulant without alcohol. The only medicine with such powers in the world.

A GENUINE TEMPERANCE BEVERAGE, far surpassing alcohol in any shape as a tonic it might be called

LIQUID LIFE;

since it stimulates, invigorates and regulates digestion, nutrition, secretion, excretion, respiration, and all the functions wherein life is maintained—we literally take in vitality in spoonsful,

It is too much to assert that the equal of Vinegar Bitters does not exist, and no counterpart or compound with similar virtues has ever been known.

CALIFORNIA,

if remarkable for nothing else, would be immortalized by the production of the medicinal fruits, roots and herbs of which this Bitters is composed. Many of them used by the Indians and the medical profession in the treatment of chills and fevers, rheumatism, catarrh, consumption, neuralgia, headaches, liver complaint, kidney disease, jaundice, gout, piles, boils, skin diseases, &c., &c., too numerous to mention, but easily understood when the action of the Bitters on the vital functions is remembered. The discovery was partly accidental but the present

PERFECT BITTERS IS THE RESULT OF SCIENCE.

Millions of sufferers have gratefully and gladly endorsed, during the past quarter of a century the wonderful success of this

PHENOMENAL TONIC OF THE WORLD.

In order to meet every probable demand, two formulas of the same ingredients are now put up.

THE OLD STYLE IS STRONGER, SLIGHTLY BITTER, AND MORE CATHARTIC.

THE NEW STYLE, PLEASANT TO THE TASTE, AND EXPRESSLY ADAPTED TO DELICATE WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

REMEMBER,

There is no disease of low vitality, debility of functions, or nervous prostration for which

VINEGAR BITTERS IS NOT CURATIVE, and its singular power over the lower organisms renders it the implacable foe of

THE DEADLY MICROBE AND OMNIPRESENT BACTERIA

in malarial diseases, cholera, consumption, internal diseases, &c., and so great is its power as a germicide that it is an

UNEQUALLED VERMIFUGE.

A book could be written of its virtues, and another of testimonials, but it is only necessary to remember its general action upon the liver, blood, brain and nerves, to realize its use in a majority of the ills that flesh is heir to, and that no family should ever be without a bottle of

OLD AND NEW STYLE VINEGAR BITTERS IN THE HOUSE.

Send for our Ladies book. Address

Address R. H. McDONALD DRUG CO. 2 Washington St., New York

50 CENTS. SOMETHING NEW.

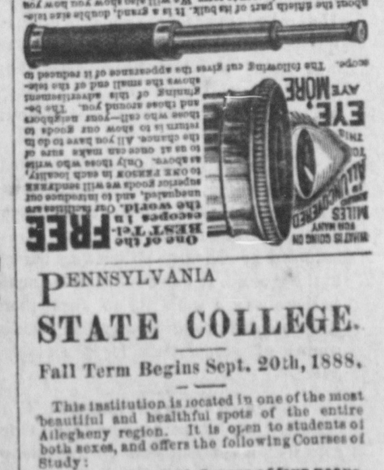
No watch like this was ever advertised in a paper before. No such bargain ever offered. This is a genuine Gold plated Watch, made of two heavy plates of 18 karat solid gold over composition metal and warranted to wear for years. It has solid bow, pap-crown and finish, pieces beautifully engraved, decorated and finished by hand. The movement is a fine Waltham style, full jeweled, quick train, expansion balance, patent pinion, accurately regulated and adjusted and warranted for 10 years. A guarantee is sent with each Watch. These watches are sold everywhere for $25—we have been getting $13.20—but for the next 60 days to introduce them we will sell them for $6.60. Send 50 cents in stamps as a guarantee of good faith and we will send you the watch by express C. O. D. subject to examination, if perfectly satisfactory you pay the agent the balance, $6.10, otherwise nothing. GRAND OFFER.—Order immediately, sending $6.60 in full with order, and if yours is the first order from that town we will give you the exclusive agency of your county and send you FREE in addition to the watch a valuable sample outfit of fine solid jewelry, consisting of rings, chains, pins, charms, etc., etc. THE CHICAGO WATCH CO., 162 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill. (Capital $150,000.)



SOMETHING NEW.

Address R. H. McDONALD DRUG CO. 2 Washington St., New York

PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE.

Fall Term Begins Sept. 20th, 1888.

This institution is located in one of the most beautiful and healthful spots of the entire Allegheny region. It is open to students of both sexes, and offers the following Courses of Study:

1. A Full Classical Course of four years
2. A Latin Scientific course
3. The following ADVANCED COURSES, of two years each, following the first two years of the general Scientific Course: (a) AGRICULTURE; (b) NATURAL HISTORY; (c) CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS; (d) CIVIL ENGINEERING.
4. A short SPECIAL COURSE in Agriculture
5. A short SPECIAL COURSE in Chemistry.
6. A reorganized Course in Mechanic Arts, Combining shop-work with study.
7. A new Special Course (two years) in Literature and Science, for Young Ladies.
8. A Carefully graded Preparatory Course.
9. Special Courses are arranged to meet the wants of individual students.

Military drill is required. Expenses for board and incidentals very low. Tuition free Young ladies under charge of a competent lady Principal

For Catalogues, or other information, address GEO. W. ATHERTON, LL.D., President, State College, Centre Co., Pa.

8-4t

ASTHMA CAN BE CURED. A trial bottle sent Free to anyone afflicted. DR. TAFT BRO., Rochester N. Y.

Bellefonte Republican,

CHAS. L. GATES, - - LESSEE
Editor and Business Manager.

Local Department.

—The Keystone Gazette has an office cat.

—See ad of A. S. Gray & Co. in "Want" column.

Mr. Paul Weaver, of Clearfield, spent Thursday in Bellefonte.

—There is a musical convention in progress this week at Pleasant Gap.

—Several communications which were crowded out to-day will appear soon.

—Dry Hollow ore mines have again started up and are now running on full time,

—The United Brethren fair and festival begins this evening. Go to it and see and eat.

—Gideon Kreamer, of Rebersburg, this county, has been granted a pension as an original invalid, —The electric lamp on corner of Lamb and Ridge streets has been shedding no light for over a week. Can't there be a new one put there?

—Colonel D. S. Dunham came out this morning in a brand new suit and a stand up collar. He jumped aboard the 9.32 morning train and went to the flourishing city of Howard.

—D M Clemson, superintendent at Scotia mines, has been transferred to Pittsburgh, to which place he will move his family in "the gentle spring time." We regret to lose these people from our midst.

—Among the persons who were in Bellefonte on Wednesday and called at this office was Mr. Lytle, of State College, Mr. Simon Sellers, of Stormstown, and Mr. Thomas Fisher, of Unionville.

—James Schofield was in a terrible hurry to get to the polls Tuesday morn. He was seen to run up High street as if there was a fire somewhere about the Diamond. He probably did find it pretty hot up there.

—There is a resident of the north ward who would have liked to run for Constable if he had only thought about it soon enough. We are very sorry, but will do our best to see his desire satisfied three years from now.

—The "Around the World in Eighty Days" company passed through Bellefonte on Wednesday en route for Lock Haven where the company plays tonight. Their special baggage car was attached to the 9,32 a. m. train.

—Mrs. William Comer, at the toll gate, died on Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock. She was a highly respected lady and a member of the M. E. church The funeral will occur on Friday at 10 o'clock. Interment in the cemetery at Curtin.

—We forgot to mention that one evening last week Mr. and Mrs. John Lane, of East Linn street, gave a german in honor of their young son Jimmy. It was quite a large party and was much enjoyed by all who attended.

—Cards are out for the marriage of Edward J. Krider, formerly of Graysville, but now of Sinking Valley, and Miss Ida F. Tussey, of the same place, which interesting event will take place on the 20th inst., at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. S. Tussey.

—It is said that J. K. Barnhart was so enthusiastic in electioneering on Tuesday that he gave stickers to a couple Half moon township residents and requested them to vote for him. This was about equalled by a republican candidate who gave all his stickers around to good, reliable men of his own party.

—The cry of fire was heard on Wednesday evening, and a little excitement was the result. The fire was bad enough, however. The house on Logan Street occupied by Thomas Miller was burned to the ground. It was doubly unfortunate as there was a wedding to occur there the same evening and everything was in course of preparation for the happy event.

A Whole Family Wiped Out.

Rarely has it become our duty to record such a sad visitation of Providence as in the case of a family at Kylertown. A few weeks since the loved wife and child of Isaiah Ardery were laid low with typhoid fever. For some time they lingered between life and death and ultimately both succumbed, leaving the husband alone in solitude to mourn his loss. Since then he has been suffering from the same malady and he, too, has gone to the great unnumbered—a complete family having become victims to that fatal disease. He died on Saturday, and was aged about 30 years. He was a young man much respected and the sympathies of many are extended to the relatives and friends of the deceased

A Sad and Sudden Death.

Miss Jennie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Shortlidge died suddenly on Wednesday evening. She had been afflicted with the grippe but was getting much better and on Wednesday evening in some way caught a fresh cold and in a very few hours was dead. Full particulars given to-morrow.

VENGEANCE

WILLIAM SEELY HOPKINS, THE DOUBLE MURDERER,

HANGED TILL DEAD.

THE EXECUTION TAKES PLACE IN THE JAIL YARD BETWEEN TEN AND ELEVEN O'CLOCK.

The prisoner Dies Game.

Over One Hundred and Fifty Persons Present—Scenes and Incidents of the First Hanging in Centre County for 70 Years—A Full History of the Crime.

THE LAST DAY ON EARTH.

The last day on earth for William Seely Hopkins was varied from the customary monotory by a walk in the jail yard and an inspection of the gallows and his coffin, as reported in Wednesday NEWS., Other ways the day was spent pretty much in reading in the bible, prayer and praise. Oh! how solemn it did seem to hear, up in that small cell, songs of praise and words of prayer constantly ascend to a higher power, knowing that it was in the interest of a soul so soon to appear before its God. Young man, take warning; it may be that the notoriety that Hopkins has enjoyed may make him seem to your dazzled vision somewhat of a hero, but ah! there is nothing heroic in being suspended from the gallows tree, all bright promises which men hold so dear in this life snapped in the twinkling of an eye, and the vision of this world shut off entirely. Take warning from this day's doings. The monotony of Wednesday was also broken by a visit from Hopkins'.

BROTHER AND BROTHER-IN LAW.

J. Bert Hopkins and Mr. Boher, of Rochester, N. Y., arrived about noon and immediately after dinner went to the doomed man's cell. Who can decribe that meeting. There were no tears shed. Ah, no! The feeling was too great for that but those who saw it could read a world of meaning in the handclasp of those two only brothers. The first words spoken were by Seely who inquired, "How is mother, and does she know?" On being told that she did not and would not, it seemed as if a load had been lifted off his mind. The conversation then became common place, each indulging in a cigar, and by common consent avoiding and mention of the vital issue. Before his friends retired Seely gave his brother a $2.50 gold piece of the date "February 20, 1890" requesting him to keep it as a remembrance.

During the evening the visit was again repeated. Others also visited prisoner and said their last good bye. Hopkins rested well during the night and was up this morning at 4.00 o'clock.

HIS LAST NIGHT.

The friends of the condemned man stayed with him until 12 o'clock. Hopkins then retired to bed and slept soundly from that till 4 o'clock this morning when he awoke and made his toilet. His breakfast of toast and eggs was soon after brought in to him and he ate heartily, talking with his attendants in a friendly and lively way. After breakfast was cleared away and promptly at 8.10 o'clock the DEATH WARRANT WAS AGAIN READ to him by Deputy Sheriff Robert Wilson. Those present at the reading were Sheriff Cooke, Deputy Wilson, special deputy Clell Bamford, W. F. Reeder, counsel for the prisoner and District Attorney J. C. Meyer.

During the reading of the instrument, which was quite lengthy. Hopkins stood unmoved and once when Deputy Wilson became somewhat affected, Hopkins looked up and smiled at his want of nerve and also placed his hand on him to see if he trembled. When the reading was completed he shook hands with those present and his grasp was the least nervous of any there.

He spoke to District Attorney J C Meyer and said that he bore him no malice. That he simply had performed his duty and he was satisfied. He said he had malice toward none; had forgiven all his enemies even as he himself had been forgiven.

When Hopkins got up this morning he said he felt very good, different from what he has felt for some time, just as if he was going somewhere, about starting on a pleasant voyage. He explained the feeling as a sure sign of his forgiveness and his great hope of Heaven, God grant it may be the truth.

THIS FORENOON

This morning a mantle of white covered Mother earth, appearing as is nature had spread a shroud for the one so soon to be summoned before a higher tribunal to be judged according to his deeds. In the prison cell, after the reading of the death warrant, the friends of the condemned spent all the time possible. His present spiritual advisers. Rev G P Sarvis and A L Long, were also there, It was a little past 9 o'clock when his dinner of turkey was served and of which he partook heartily afterwards the friends said a final farewell a last prayer was offered and the march to the gallows began with the procession in order as follows:

There on the scaffold were Sheriff Cooke, Sheriff Leahy, of Lock Haven, Deputy Sheriff Robert Wilson, special deputy sheriff Clell Bamford, and the spiritual advisers. Rev G P Sarvis and Mr A L Long, of Howard.

THE START FOR THE GALLOWS.

It was just ten o'clock when the jury took their places at the door of the jail and the Sheriff went up to bring down the prisoner. The two hundred and one persons present then filed out into the yard and there awaited the arrival of the procession which filed out of the jail at 10.07 in the following order:

Sheriffs Cooke and Leahy, of Lock Haven; deputy Barmford and Capt. Clark; the prisoner, Hopkins' supported by Rev. G. P. Sarvis on the right and A. T. Long on the left. These were followed by the jury of twelve men as named elsewhere. Hopkins walked with a steady tread. The procession ascended the scaffold in the order it came out. Immediately on reaching the platform all kneeled down and A. T. Long offered a 3 minutes prayer, commending the doomed man to God. During the prayer Hopkins kneeled and leaned his one arm on Rev. Sarvis while the other was rested on Sheriff Cooke.

After the prayer was offered Hopkins was given an opportunity to speak and accordingly he advanced to the railing and spoke as follows:

HIS LAST SPEECH.

"Good bye, kind friends. I leave this world without an enemy. God has forgiven me my terrible crime. There is another thing I wish to speak of before I go and that is about a report that has been in circulation around this town regarding a Miss Baney and Miss Bartlet who was accused of being too sociable with me in my cell. The story is all an untruth and I wish to vindicate them of all such charges. Again Good bye.

The prisoner then stepped back on the trap and Sheriff Leahy took him by one arm and Deputy Bamford by the other while Sheriff Cooke proceded to tie his arms and legs. Hopkins then said to Sheriff Cooke: "Sheriff, you have been very kind to me and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Good-bye." He then bid good bye to Deputy Sheriff Wilson and his guard Clell Bamford. He was then securely pinioned by having his limbs bound at the ankles and above the knees and his arms hand cuffed behind his back. The rope was adjusted at 10.14 and the a few seconds later. Just before the cap was drawn the prisoner again called "farewell to all."

BLACK CAP PUT ON

THE TRAP WAS SPRUNG AND THE ROPE BROKE.

It was but a few seconds after the black cap was adjusted till all walked off of the scaffold and Sheriff Cooke sprung the trap at just 10.15 o'clock. Oh, horror of horrors! the rope broke and the man fell to the ground. Instantly there were a half dozen picked him up and the Sheriff re-adjusted the rope and at 10.20 the trap was sprung for the second time and William Seely Hopkins, the murderer of his wife and mother-in-law was swinging in mid air.

With the first fall the prisoner was rendered senseless and dead to all feeling. His neck was not broken, however, until the second drop. The breaking of the rope was through no fault of the Sheriff as it had been thoroughly tested several days ago and again this morning.

PRONOUNCED DEAD.

It was just ten minutes, or at 10.25, after the first fall when Hopkins' pulse ceased to beat. His heart shortly afterward ceased its throbbing and at 10.35 he was pronounced dead. He was cut down at 10.38, and at once turned over to the undertaker, Henry Harris & Son, who would fix up the body—embalm it and put in a casket. It will be shipped to his home at Rochester, N. Y., on the 4.30 train this afternoon.

INCIDENTS OF THE EVENT.

Hopkins when the rope broke the first time trembled violently. There was a great jerking and twitching of the arms and limbs. When the second drop was made. the man hung limp and lifeless—not a movement being visible

It, of course, was a very unfortunate affair that the rope broke, but it was universally believed to have been the best for the man. His senses were entirely deadened and the crowd was afraid the inevitable twitching and jerking of the body and limbs which would inevitably have followed if the rope had not broken.

As to Sheriff Cooke, he did his duty well, very well, and is to be highly commended on the complete arrangements he had made, and for the fine working order with which everything was done. He was not a bit nervous although somewhat excited when the rope broke.

The final act has now been done and the murderer of Esther Wigamen and her daughter Maggie, the wife of W. Seely Hopkins, the murderer, has been avenged.

THE JURY THAT VIEWED THE BODY.

Following are the names of the men that composed the jury selected by the Sheriff to view the body and pronounce it dead:

I. N. Gorden, Bellefonte.
W. F. Reynolds, Jr., Bellefonte.
William Houser, Bellefonte.
Dr. Dunwiddie, Philipsburg.
D. H. Ruhl, Spring Mills.
Cephas Gramley, Rebersburg.
D. B. Kunes, Blanchard.
W. E. Landon, Philipsburg.
J. T. Barton, Fleming.
J. P. Sebring, Loveville.
Samuel Bennison, Walker.
Samuel Aley, Walker.

The physicians who were in attendance officially were Dr. E. S. Dorworth, county physician, and Dr. George F. Harris.

THE GALLOWS.

The gallows is solidly constructed of planed white oak, it is ten feet from the ground to the platform on which the prisoner stood, and eight feet from the platform to the crossbeam to which the rope is fastened. A double trap door constituted the trap which was sprung by a trigger at the top of the stairs. The fall was about eight feet. The rope used was a one-half inch which had all the stretch taken out of it by the use of a 190 pound sand bag. The prisoner stood on the trap door while being pinioned which was the tying of a strap around his ankles and one around his limbs above the knees; also tying his hands and arms securely behind his back. The black cap and rope was put on while standing in that position also.

NOTES.

This is the first hanging in Centre county for 70 years.

The number admitted could have been trebled and still room for more.

The singing of "Nearer My God to Thee" as the procession took its way to the gallows we hope was very emblematic. It was rendered feelingly and beautiful.

The reporters present from a distance were a Mr. Laning of the Elmira Telegram, and a Mr. Doyle of another Elmira paper. Mr. Zeller represented the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin, while about a score of metropolitan papers were represented by resident newspaper men.

HOW THE PRISONER SPENT TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

From Tuesdays DAILY NEWS.

If it be possible for a murderer to repent and be forgiven of his terrible deed, and his continued assertion that such forgiveness had been accorded him from on high, and belief could be placed in his expressions, and his actions would count in his favor, then certainly murderer Hopkins has sought pardon and been granted forgiveness, as a more indifierent character to his impending and inevitable fate could not be found inside the walls of any church than that double murderer now incarcerated in the Bellefonte jail. He still sleeps and eats as well as anyone and is just waiting the hour when he can step on to the scaffold and shuffle off this mortal coil.

The scaffold will be completed to-day and every arrangement is now almost completed. We learn that the sisters of the condemned man have reconsidered their determination to come to Bellefonte and that no one of the family will be here but his brother and brother-in-law, who will leave Rochester, N. Y., this evening and arrive in Bellefonte to-morrow morning. Following we give a letter written by Hopkins to W. Cann, of the Philipsburg Journal:

BELLEFONTE, PA.,
February 15th, 1890,

DEAR FRIEND CANN.—This lovely morning I will write you a short letter; and as it will be my last to you I will endeavor to thank you for your kind and good advice to me while I have been confined here. I thank God I heeded your, and other kind friends', advice, for to-day all is well and I shall die content. The world seems bright to me, yet I do not want to stay. The promise God has given to me is far brighter than anything this world contains. I shall die with no malice towards anyone. I forgive all and earnestly hope that God will be as merciful to all those who have any enmity towards me as He has been to me. Dear friend Cann, the words you told me in my cell are ever ringing in my ears, and I shall pass from this world to a better with them ever present in my mind.

My earnest prayer is that the ranks of the Y M C A will increase ten-fold, and my advice to all young men is that they become members of good societies and be true workers in God's cause, for if I had heeded God's commandments I today would be a free man. Tell them to stop before it is for ever too late; tell my friends and associates that I hope they will all seek God while yet they have time.

I hope some poor wonderer will heed my advice. I now close with a long farewell, and may God reward you and the members of the Y M C A for the kind interest you have taken in me, is my earnest prayer. To all a kind and last farewell. From your true friend,

W. SEELEY HOPKINS.

LATER.

The scaffold on which Hopkins will be executed is finished and found to be perfect. Sheriff Cooke tested the rope to be used with a 190 pound sand bag; it also proved substantial. Hopkins is resting quietly—awaiting the day. He sleeps and eats well, and to-day weighs 134 lbs—which is about 25 pounds more than when brought to the jail. He is prepared, and with God's help will meet his fate like a man.

Andrews has, it is said, found peace for his soul and is now content and happy. Both men speak in highest terms of praise of Sheriff and Mrs. Cooke, and also of Deputy Sheriff Wilson and their guards. Andrews is some heavier than Hopkins—his weight being 142 pounds.

From Wednesdays DAILY NEWS.

The condition of Hopkins this morning remains unchanged. He is not in the least nervous and sleeps and eats just as well as ever. He will be given his turkey dinner to-morrow.

This morning Sheriff Cooke took Hopkins out to see the gallows. He walked up and over it and was pleased and expressed perfect satisfaction with it. He was shown his coffin and said "it was all right."

The district attorney informed a DAILY NEWS reporter this morning that contrary to the announcement in this paper several days ago, the body of Hopkins would not be exposed to the public view after the execution, but would, after pronounced dead, be immediately given into the hands of the undertaker, who would embalm it and hold it until the first train that left for Rochester when it would be given into the keeping of his friends. This fact is given on the assurance of the Sheriff and undertaker.

The next issue of the DAILY NEWS will contain a full account of the execution. For the benefit of the public we again give the names of the special police appointed by the county to serve tomorrow. They are as follows: Capt. Mullen, H. H. Montgomery, G. W. Knicely, Theodore Steele, J. H. Oliger and John Feaster.

The doomed man's relatives arrived this morning. Every preparation for the execution to-morrow is now complete and by this time on Thursday Hopkins will have gone from this world to meet his God.

HOPKINS' AWFUL CRIME.

The crime for which William Seely Hopkins to-day paid the penalty was presented in full to our readers at the time of its enactment. It was one of the most cold blooded and unfeeling that has ever been chronicled and only by the stern mandate of the law as successfully carried out today could justice be righted and the blood of his victims be avenged.

W. S. Hopkins was twenty-nine years old last July. He was born in Spencerport, New York, at which place he resided until twenty-one years of age. From Spencerport he went to Pittfield, New York, and from there he came to Philipsburg, this county, about eight years ago. He worked at various trades, but principally that of a carpenter, during the years he lived there. On the 23rd of March, 1887, he was married to Maggie Wigamen, only daughter of Esther Wigamen, of Philipsburg, after a courtship of a few months.

The first year of their married life was spent happily together, but in the second year that soul-destroying and home-wrecking demon of green-eyed jealousy seized the the husband and from that time on until the fatal tragedy was enacted all happiness was completely banished from that once happy home.

It was on Sunday, September 22, 1889, that persons living in the vicinity of the Wigamen house, in Philipsburg, heard four shots fired in rapid succession and soon after a man emerged from the rear part of the house and ran diagonally across the street to Alport's livery stable. The man, who was W. Seely Hopkins, still held a smoking revolver in his hand. On reaching the stable Hopkins deliberately threw up the revolver and fired two shots at his own head, apparently intent on taking his own life, but in this he failed. The first shot missed entirely and the second one only lodged against the skull bone.

A crowd soon assembled, attracted by the pistol shots, and the man was taken in charge and questioned as to why he had attempted suicide. The first knowledge of the terrible tragedy was then learned when he confessed to the killing of his wife, Maggie, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Wigaman, and in his own words gave as the reason "because he loved Maggie to distraction and could not live without her and as people were trying to part them he thought he would settle the difficulty by killing them and then himself."

The two unfortunate women were buried and Hopkins, as soon as he was able to stand the trip, was brought to Bellefonte and lodged in jail to await his trial for murder. The grand jury was not long in finding a true indictment of murder in the first degree and on Wednesday morning, November 27, 1889, the case went to trial before President Judge A. O. Furst. Colonel Jackson L. Spangler assisted District Attorney, J. Calvin Meyer, for the Commonwealth and Wilbur F. Reeder Esq., Adjutant General Hastings' law partner, defended the prisoner.

The case created universal excitement, as this was the first case of murder in the first degree to be tried in the courts of Centre county since the year 1818, or 71 years ago. The court house was crowded to its utmost capacity during the three days and one night the trial lasted. The defense tried hard to save the neck of the prisoner on the plea of "emotional insanity" but it was of no avail. The evidence against him was too overwhelming.

The Commonwealth had a clear case. They proved by innumerable witnesses how the prisoner had frequently quarreled with and threatened to kill his wife. How he had gone to Houtzdale on the Thursday before the killing was done and there told that he would do it, besides leaving other tangible evidence in the shape of letters written while in Houtzdale and Osceola in whichhe declare dhis intenti on of killing his wife and mother-in-law, which letters were offered in evidence against him. They proved how he had gone from Osceola to Philipsburg on Saturday evening; how he entered the cellar of his own house at eleven o'clock on Saturday night and lay there concealed, with revolver in his hand and murder in his heart, until 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, when he stole stealthily up the stairs and quietly sneaked up behind his wife, who was washing dishes at a table, and shot her twice, killing her instantly. His mother-in-law hearing the shots came running down stairs when Seely draws the revolver and shoots at her, the ball entering the lower jaw and passing up and out through the left cheek. The woman retreated up the stairs and locked herself in a room. Hopkins followed, broke open the door and while the aged lady was on her knees praying him "Seely, for God's sake, don't kill me," he deliberately clutches her and sends another bullet crashing downward through her brain, killing her instantly. He then left the house and proceeded to Alport's livery stable where the attempt at self-destruction was made.

Before committing the crime, on Saturday afternoon, Hopkins had borrowed four cartridges to load his revolver, which was a British Bull-dog of 38 calibre, and had said he would make good use of them. He also fortified himself by drinking a quart of whiskey. When Hopkins confessed to the killing of the two women it was not at first credited as they had been seen only a few minutes previous out on the street, so that it was with a good many doubts as to the truth of his statement that parties went to the house; but such doubts were quickly dispelled on entering the kitchen to behold the ghastly sight found there as well as up stairs. The two women both lay in a pool of their own blood dead. The jury on the trial was out but one hour and fifteen minutes.

Hopkins has been especially notorious throughout the entire case for his unprecedented display of nerve. Never at any time did he show the least regret for the deed he had done or display any fear or nervousness over the terrible consequences of his crime, while the shedding of a single tear was not even in his thoughts. He was game through the whole thing. Hopkins makes the third man hanged in Centre county. The others were "Negro Dan" in 1802 and James Monks in 1819. But from present appearance he will not be the last as there is now another murderer, Alfred Andrews, in the jail under sentence of death, only awaiting the day of his execution to be named by the governor; a woman in the jail charged with the murder of her father-in-law, another man who attempted murder and may yet be tried for his life, and another murderer still at large. Verily the hand of crime has fallen heavily on Old Centre.

Our Academy.

Strangers wonder that Bellefonte should hold the position among towns of its size in our State which it certainly does in producing men for the State (women too we may add) who are worthy and honored.

Among the influences that tend to this, we all know that our good schools are not the least important. We have good public schools, with honored christian men to control them, and for all these years our Academy, in reports of every discouragement has sent out a steady stream of well trained boys and girls, many of whom have passed through College with high credit and are doing well in the world. One of them is at the head of the public schools. Boys from a distance come here for a training they cannot so well get elsewhere.

Now, Bellefonte people, the time has come for you to put to your shoulder to lift the Academy out of the rut and put it on firm ground. Money is needed, but you can spare it and could not put it to better use. You who have sat on the old benches and learned your "hic haec hoc" or puzzled over your hard sums in arithmetic, now help your old friends and make it a joy and beauty instead of the disgrace that it is—stir up your public spirit and loyalty to your own town, and do what you will never regret. Give liberally, let us all give, for the Academy is public property, and should be supported by all of our people. Now is the time, there is a movement forward, if it is not encouraged, we fear there will be regret, disappointment. We want to have a stream of good flowing from this old "beautiful fountain."

—The United Brethren congregation will hold their fair and festival in the vacant store room next postoffice, commencing this evening and continuing all the week. Evenings only.